A HIGH SCHOOL ANNUAL

It has been the hope of this year's student council to publish a high school annual. A great deal of discussion pro and has occurred at the meetings it is still unsettled.

We have not had an annual about four or five years and most of the students are very much in COUNCII. PLANNING A of the students are very much in-terested in the plan.

An annual means a great deal to the students of the school; it to the students of the school; it summarizes of the entire year and furnishes a valuable collection of pictures.

A great deal of work is required to put across a project of this kind but that makes it seem so much more valuable.

i The last annual having been so many years ago, every one olight to be willing to do his best in co-operating. Whether or not there will be an annual the following year depends a great deal upon the success of this year's work. It's up to every one of us to help this a paying proposition

STELLA VANDERBURG IS CHOSEN PRESIDENT OF HOME ECONOMICS CLUB

Stella Vanderburg was elected president of the Home Economics Club at a meeting September 26. The other officers are Mildred Stanley, vice-president; Lois Murphy, secretary; Dwayne Murphy, treasurer.

Stanley, vice-president; Lois Murphy, secretary; Dwayne Murphy, treasurer.

A social committee consisting of Mildred Mohring, Gladys Krum and Mary Ellen Fink, was eletted which is to attend to all social affairs of the club.

It was decided to hold meetings every two weeks on Friday night or Saturday afternoon. The social committee shall set that and place of meetings.

CONTEST IS SUCCESS

CONTEST IS SUCCESS
By Marian Erwin
The senior magazine contest, which was conducted within the class alone, was a decided success.
The class was divided into two groups, the Reds and the Greens.
The Greens sold 60 subscriptions or bought in $36 for the Washington trip, while the Reds sold $52 subscriptions thus swelling the profit to $875.
Elleen Lapham, sales manager, states, "The townspeople co-operated very well in this campaign."

JUNIORS ORDER RINGS

By Marian Edwin
The uniors have ordered their rigs and they will have them in about a month.
There are thirty-four students who will get either pins, or rings, or both.

CORRECTION

In the September 21 issue of "The "Latch-Key" the stateement was made that the new football suits were purchased with money donated by the business men of the town. We wish to correct this statement as the money did come from this source.
