Miss Ruth Whitney attended a birthday dinner party at the home of Lucile Austin Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O'Connor and family were Sunday visitors at Mr. and Mrs. John Spalding's residence.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathews and son Gordon, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staley of Greening boulevard on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mitchell of Haynes avenue entertained several of the playmates of their daughter Virginia in honor of her twelfth birthday Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. James Carpenter were visitors at Detroit over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cox are planning a birthday party in honor of their daughter Margaret, who will be six years old on Saturday.

Ray Oldham, who recently underwent an operation at Ann Arbor, returned to his employment at Pontiac on Wednesday last. Several noticeable improvements have been made by the road crew in the past week, especially on the cutting through of the new part of Haynes avenue at the South end, running into the new part of Elm street. Several charges of dynamite were used in removing the stumps from the newly-made road-bed of Elm street. The road scraper was busy this past week on Moran street from Miller to Haynes.

There are two dangerous places along Miller avenue claiming the attention of the proper authorities at this time. They are culvert cross-overs, one about 280 yards from the 10-Mile road which has no side-protectors and another worst, between Elm street and the old Farmington road. At this place the culvert it is barely wide enough for one car to pass over as there are only a few inches of road between the wheel-tracks of a car and a direct drop of several feet. The danger will be increased, it is pointed out, by the coming of ice and snow. The school bus passes these points several times each day. Ola Whitney, a sophomore at the Farmington High School, will try out for the girls' basketball team this year.

SIXTH DISTRICT SCHOOL NOTES

Several changes have been made in the past week in placing pupils in their proper grades. After a trial of thirty days, it was found that some of the pupils could not keep up in their respective grades, while others are ahead of the grades they were assigned to. These changes, the principal says, had to be made at this time for the benefit of the students as well as for the good of the schools of the district. A note was sent home with each student so changed.

Willard Credit, of the Noble School lost his watch while practicing football on Tuesday last. A few of the pupils missed the bus this last week, which necessitated a long walk to school. Recitation benches have been installed in Room One.

A part of the Sixth grade recitation work is being cared for by Mrs. Thomas in Room Two.

The second and third graders at the William Grace School are getting ready for Halloween with owls, pumpkins, etc.

Some provision must soon be made for taking care of the 18 or 20 children who were sent home again at the opening of the schools in the district. These children will soon be of school age and it probably will have to be established somewhere in the district to care for these children. The four school rooms are now almost filled to capacity. There is talk of a centrally located school.
