

Personal

News Items and Social Notes are always appreciated and help make our columns more interesting for everyone. Please items to 25-27.

Mrs. C. A. Tuck of Milford spent a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Elmer Switzer.

Lois, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Storms, has been ill with a severe cold.

Mrs. O. H. Simms spent Thursday in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Russell spent Monday in Howell visiting Mrs. Howard Warner.

Mrs. Olin Russell and Mrs. W. G. Jubb spent Tuesday in Detroit. R. Gillespie of Harrisburg, Pa., spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. George H. Riddle.

Mrs. Edgar Pierce and Mrs. Harley Warner took their children to Detroit on Wednesday to see the Junior League play, "Pinocchio," presented at the Detroit Civic Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pagel spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shear in Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hinman Nichols attended the Michigan-Illinois football game at Ann Arbor on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. Hinman Nichols had dinner in Detroit on Wednesday evening after which they saw "Golden Dawn."

Mrs. S. Keith's condition remains quite serious.

Mr. and Mrs. William Shepherd and daughter Ione of Birmingham were Wednesday dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller.

Ralph Macomber was away from school a few days because of illness.

Mrs. Frank Macomber spent Thursday at Mrs. L. F. Schroeder's.

The W. W. G. Girls of the Baptist Church will present a missionary play called "Helen of Troy," some time during the third week in November.

A boy, Allan Richard Brendon, was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hart, October 23.

Charles Samson is very ill. Several ladies of the Baptist Church will attend "President's Day" to be held at the Wayne Baptist Church, November 13.

As a bridge party Tuesday, Mrs. J. Shoemaker entertained a number of friends from Detroit, at "Mammy's Bungalow," on Grand River avenue west.

Wanda and Ernestine Drake went to the beach and with Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Drake of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lewis, Mrs. John Johnson and Miss Leola Ike were dinner guests Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Switzer.

The ladies of the M. E. Church will hold their bazaar and chicken dinner on November 16th.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bradley, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. George Stackey, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Seeley of Northville on Saturday.

Mrs. Ralph Auten with sons spent Saturday in Ortonville visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Brandt.

Mrs. Mary Whitford is spending several weeks with friends in Highland Park.

Mrs. L. Habermehl is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Bowers from the Upper Peninsula.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Taggart were Mrs. James Field, and sons James and William, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Renaude and family.

Mrs. Jane Taggart of Windsor is making an indefinite stay with her son, Orville Taggart and family.

The Sunshine Circle of the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church will meet with Mrs. Charles Walling Friday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Farmington Chapter, O. E. S. 229, will be held Tuesday evening, November 13.

The Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet Monday evening with Miss Winifred Walling.

Mrs. Ruth Baker, Mrs. Tuttle and Winifred Walling spent Tuesday in Detroit.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Baptist Church will meet Friday, November 16. All husbands are invited. Several speakers from the City Mission will be present.

Miss Adeline Wisom is confined to her home with a sprained ankle.

Fred Allen of Detroit, a former resident of Farmington, was a visitor in town Wednesday.

Mrs. Oscar Dahlen and children spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. Merrill Caswell of Clarkston.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilyard Ross and son of Buxton, Can., visited their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. David Ross on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Fleming made a trip to Traverse City.

Mrs. C. F. Smith entertained for friends at a party held at S. A. Engel's.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walling, Elbert, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Salow and daughter of Northville, spent Sunday with Mr. Walling's sister, Mrs. A. Condit in Maccon.

Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Brownridge of Highland Park and two children, visited Mr. and Mrs. David Ross Sunday.

Mrs. Samuel Billing of Purling Brook Road, attended a masquerade party at Grosse Pointe, Friday evening, given by her granddaughter, Helen Beaver.

Miss Mary Ellen Fink and Miss Olive Grimwade were guests at a masquerade party on Friday evening, given by Olive Grimwade's cousin, Helen Beaver, at her home in Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. O. H. Simms entertained Thursday for the ladies of the O. E. S. of Farmington, also for the daughters of the Union Veterans from Detroit at bridge and "500." There were about twenty present who had a most enjoyable afternoon. In the evening Mrs. Simms entertained her sisters and families.

Mrs. H. Wadenstorer received word from England of the death of her brother, William Wadenstorer.

Mr. Woolf and Mr. Phelps of Walpole Lake were Farmington visitors Wednesday.

Mrs. C. J. Peck of Detroit is spending several days with Mrs. H. Wadenstorer.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wadenstorer were, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Whitley, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy, Mr. and Mrs. Witmer, Locke and son, and Mrs. Gallup of Detroit and Mrs. Johnson of Redford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walters and daughter, Madelyn, left for Florida Wednesday morning by automobile. Mrs. Harry Walters accompanied them for part of the trip.

Donations of fruit and jelly to be sent to the Soldiers' Hospital at Battle Creek should be left at the Hardware Co. store before Christmas. Mrs. H. A. Schroeder of the American Legion Auxiliary announces.

Mrs. Roy Schroeder and Mrs. Gus Schroeder spent Friday in Detroit.

Mrs. John Landau spent last Friday with her daughter, Mrs. R. H. Schroeder.

Rev. J. E. Jacklin of Detroit was a guest of Rev. H. A. Leeson of Sunday.

Harley D. Warner and Dr. Zae R. Aschenbrenner are duck hunting at Houghton Lake.

Mrs. Agnes Chamberlain and Harley D. Warner have been drawn on the Traverre jury.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harger were pleasantly surprised last week when Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kingsbury, old friends from River Forest, Ill., called on them. They stopped on their way back from England, where they have been living for two years. They will make their home in Lansing.

Those who have become impatient and thought that the traffic signal with the broken lenses at Grand River and Farmington in Farmington would never be repaired, are assured that as soon as possible there will be new parts in the light.

Lines of motor cars of varying length have piled up at various times each day, waiting for the proper signal, which failed to appear because there was not lens. City Clerk N. H. Power and Superintendent George Grant reported to the City Commission Monday night that efforts to obtain lenses in Detroit and from the Oakland County Road Commission at Pontiac were unsuccessful. New lenses have been ordered from the manufacturers of the signal, with request to rush the shipment. A reserve supply will be kept on hand henceforth.

Sign Question Will Again Be Discussed

The City of Farmington's perennial "sign question," again scheduled to be settled. The entire City Commission being present Monday night, Mayor Wells, J. Butterfield took up the problem, as had previously been agreed upon by the Commissioners.

Discussion brought no decision but on suggestion of Commissioner Olin Russell, the matter was made a special order of business for final settlement at the meeting on Monday, November 19.

LIST OF PATRONS, CAST, ANNOUNCED BY THE 'PLAYERS'

Farmington Dramatic Group Prepares For First Offering Next Week

With a large list of patrons and a cast that includes a number of well-known young people of this section, the Farmington Players will present their first play in the Farmington Town Hall on Friday evening, November 16.

Rehearsals are being held every evening, new "sets" are being built and the curtain enlarged and repainted.

The cast of "Love-In-A-Mist," the opening play, is announced as follows:

Miss Diana Wynne.....Dorothy Ingalls
Sidney Rose Wynne.....Frances Brown
Miss Annie Moore Wynne.....M. Marie Walling
Gregory Farnham.....C. Gerald Parker
Count Scipione Varella.....Eric Banfield
Kizzy.....Adelaide Wisom
Colby.....Virgil Button

The setting of the play is in the Blue Ridge Mountains. It is a satirical comedy.

In announcing the list of patrons of the Farmington Players, Harmon Boice, business manager, stated the purpose of the Farmington Players to be "to create, maintain, and extend throughout the community of Farmington, a higher understanding of the spoken drama."

It is hoped that the production next week will provide funds with which to remodel the Town Hall stage, build new sets, and other equipment. The organization hopes also to be able to buy two books on the drama, one on the early days of the drama and the other on the present. It is the intention to present these books to the Farmington Library.

Patrons announced by the Farmington Players this week are:

Supervisor and Mrs. Harry N. McCracken.
Mayor and Mrs. Wells D. Butterfield.
Mr. and Mrs. Nathan H. Power.
Mrs. M. E. Whitford.
Mr. and Mrs. Roy Brown.
Mr. and Mrs. Don Button.
Mr. and Mrs. William Pauline.
Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Harger.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Vivier.
Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Switzer.
Miss Esther Boynton.
Stanley F. Smith.
Miss Helen Hard.
Mr. and Mrs. Howard Warner.
Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Pierce.
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lamb.

Mr. and Mrs. Harley Warner, M. and Mrs. C. B. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walling, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. H. Haggerty, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Cook, Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gullen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Wolfe, Mrs. Ethel Middlewood, Dr. and Mrs. Z. R. Aschenbrenner, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Leonard, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Boice, Dr. and Mrs. E. F. Holcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Wisom, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar S. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. H. Levinson.

NORTH FARMINGTON NOTES

At the Bond School P. T. A. meeting Friday evening the teachers presented a Halloween program, including a "night-cap social," which was a decided success. About $40 was cleared.

The North Farmington Nutrition Group met at the Bond School Wednesday, with 17 present. Miss Ethel MacDonald, County Home Demonstration Agent, was in charge. A demonstration of proper setting of a dinner table was given, with a lesson in table etiquette. A mock dinner was served by Mesdames Perry, Hafemeister, Coe and Clappison.

ATTEND THE BAZAAR IN THE afternoon and a chicken supper served from 5:30 p. m. until all are served. At the M. E. Community Hall, Friday, November 16th.

In Cold Weather Especially

OUR

Food Delivery Service

Is appreciated by Housewives. Phone 122

For Meats and Groceries At Your Door

Henry Pauline

"Everything for the Table"

WORTH CONSIDERING

In all its relations with the public, whether dealing with individuals or groups, The Peoples State Bank has earned for itself an enviable reputation for helpful service.

In case you are not already numbered among our customers, we shall enjoy having you come in today to start an account.

PEOPLES STATE BANK

The Last Call for HUNTING TOGS

You Can't Buy Better Than the Famous "SOO LINE"

For Hunters Who Want the Best

BLAZERS $6, $7, $7.50, $11

BREECHES $7.00

CORDUROY HUNTING CAPS Reversible—$1.25 and $1.50

Hunting Rubbers and High-Top Shoes Sheep-Lined Moccasins and Mittens

F. L. COOK & CO.

F. L. Cook Adolph Nacker
Phone 10—Farmington

Too Early?

Not to be ordering such personal items as your

Christmas Greeting Cards

We have a beautiful, showing—new, distinctive, varied

YOUR NAME IMPRINTED UPON THEM AT SMALL COST

The Farmington Enterprise
Phone 25F2

KUNSKY REPERTORY

FRIDAY ONLY 3 Acts of Kunsky Vaudeville

LAST TIMES TODAY AND TOMORROW THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 8-9 GRETA GARBO AND CONRAD NAGEL in "THE MYSTERIOUS LADY"

Greta Garbo has never had a part to fit her like this one. A famous Russian spy, she moves through the lives of men, in a maze of intrigue, passion and disaster.

MICKEY MCGUIRE in "MICKEY'S MOVIES"

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 10 "GANG WAR"

Featuring Jack Pickford and Olive Borden. Sensational story of the UNDERWORLD.

Big Boy in "Navy Beans"—News—Fable Notre Dame's Deceptive Pass—Football Series

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOVEMBER 11-12 MARION DAVIES in THE CARDBOARD LOVER

Marion Davies was never so funny as the girl who gambles with love in Monte Carlo's gay, gilded playground of wealth.

ON THE STAGE—FAMOUS INTERNATIONAL BAND Musicians from the World over Also "OUR GANG" Comedy

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 13

Lewis Stone in "The Freedom of the Press"

A wondrous love theme woven gently like the muted notes of an organ through a tale of underworld, brutality, politics, crime and graft.

Newlywed's Comedy—News—Review

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 14

"HIT OF THE SHOW"

With Gertrude Olmstead, Joe E. Brown, Gertrude Astor The world of make-believe with its curtains of grinning merriment torn aside. Human drama...all the more heart rending—because its characters must laugh through their tears—every-day folk in a world of grim pretense.

ON THE STAGE—OPPORTUNITY NIGHT

A Carnival of Fun, Surprises and Laughs