

ENTIRE SCHOOL BOARD OF DISTRICT 6 RESIGN

The Boys Who Did The Work

So numerous were the compliments received by the Enterprise on its Fortieth Anniversary Edition published last week, that it was decided an opportunity should be given our readers to become acquainted with "the boys who did the work."

at once. He scored the electors of the district for lack of faith in and support of the Board. "You elected us almost unanimously at the annual meeting," he asserted. "But you won't back up a single thing we do. Why don't you bring your gang to the annual meeting and put somebody else on the Board in the first place?"

Two More Resign

The moment Mr. Oldham concluded his words, Charles Wier-shin declared that he too, would resign, and Joseph Lawton followed with a similar statement. President George Schulkins declared, "I will serve my term out, but not a bit longer. You can't teach school in two barns. I've asked the State Inspector to come here. If that wall over there falls down and somebody is hurt or killed, then how much will we pay? One wall of this building is four inches out of plumb. You burned down the old Noble school for want of two rows of bricks that would have cost about 35 cents."

Thomas G. Rakestraw, a resident of the District, urged Oldham to remain as secretary temporarily, saying he believed it better for the District. "No, I'm through tonight—tonight!" declared Oldham. "You know where I live and you can come and get the books." At this point Roy Livingston declared his intention, too, of resigning.

Turning to President Schulkins, Mr. Oldham said, "You're the only man left" to which the former replied, "Then I'll resign, too, and the people can do as they please."

Mr. Oldham spoke of the necessity for posting notices, for special meeting to elect new Board members, which Mr. Schulkins said he would not do but Mr. Oldham reminded him that the meeting would not be legal. At this point, Herbert L. Lindstrom arose and declared that something should be done to alter the unhappy situation, and urged the people to consider both sides. There were shouts of disapproval, upon which Mr. Lindstrom declared: "Do you know what I heard one man in this District say? He said that if the School Board goes ahead and throws away a lot of money on a new building, the same thing might happen here that happened in Bath, Mich."

Argument began to wax warm when Mr. Oldham shouted a motion for adjournment, which was quickly carried.

The meeting Tuesday evening will take place in the same building, the William Grace School, on Farmington drive, east of Switzer road, at 7:30 p. m.

FUNERAL SERVICES ARE HELD FOR MRS. SIMMONS; FORMER RESIDENT HERE

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Mrs. Minnie Simmons, who spent her girlhood in Farmington, and who died at her home, 26 Maple drive, Pontiac, Saturday, November 24. Burial took place in Oakwood Cemetery, Farmington.

Mrs. Simmons was born in Farmington and attended school here. Her illness had been of long duration. She had moved to Farmington some time ago, but was still remembered by a number of older residents.

Infant Dies

Burial took place in Oakwood Cemetery Saturday, November 24, of Otis Larsen, one year old. The child's parents reside on Haines avenue, near Switzer road, east of Farmington.

PURCHASES HOUSE

Joseph Himmelspach, proprietor of the Farmington Dairy, has purchased the house and lot of Harry Habermehl on East Oakland avenue, formerly known as the "Alonzo Ingersoll" place. The consideration was not disclosed.

NOTICE

A special meeting of the qualified electors of School District No. 6, Farmington Township will be held at the William Grace School, at 7:30 p. m., December 4, 1928, to consider the resignations of the School Board, and to fill vacancies incurred therefrom. (Signed) George Schulkins, President.

FATHERS, MOTHERS, BOYS AND GIRLS, IN SCHOOL TOGETHER

Mysteries Of Mathematics, Chemistry, And Other Subjects Revealed Tuesday Night

Children led their parents in discovering the mysteries of geometry, chemistry, physics, commercial arithmetic, and a dozen other subjects Tuesday evening when the first "Parents' Night" was held in Farmington High School, under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers Association.

Several score fathers and mothers attended school for the first time in years, and learned at first hand just what their sons and daughters are studying in school hours. Many risked the "perils" of the chemistry laboratory while others wrestled with commercial arithmetic problems. Whether the parents obtained the answers in the latter subject before their children, was not learned.

The physics and chemistry classes drew attentive spectators, whose interest in chemistry, at least, was increased when the instructor at one time seized a test-tube from the student making the demonstrations, to prevent a minor explosion.

School began at 7:00 o'clock, the pupils having been excused from classes during the afternoon in consideration of their attendance at night. Following the classes, the high school students gathered in the assembly-room where the evening program was concluded with presentation of the awards in the Farmington Woman's Club essay contest.

ONLY FORGOT HIS TAIL-LIGHT— BUT THAT WAS ENOUGH

Disregard Of Red Signals Leads To Discovery Of Liquor— And Jail For Driver

Driving without a tail-light was just a little detail that James Murphy, 6248 Milwaukee avenue, Chicago, forgot when he drove down Grand River avenue Tuesday night. But the absence of the tail-light attracted the attention of Deputy Sheriff Stokely and a Marek, and they followed Murphy. Larger red lights apparently meant nothing, also, to Murphy, for he went right past the one at Grand River and Division street. The officers decided this was enough. They stopped Murphy. In the car they found, they reported, five cases of liquor. So they charged Murphy with transportation of intoxicants and locked him up.

His car was confiscated.

Recover Stolen Car

Farmington police were notified Saturday of the recovery in Napoleon, O., of an automobile owned by Mr. Goldie Luna, of Route 2, who lives south of the Seven-Mile road.

The car was stolen some time ago. It is a sedan.

SOUTHFIELD FOOTBALL TEAM IS VICTORIOUS OVER DETROIT HERALDS

Lacking the generalship of Robinson, who is out with an injured hand, Southfield's football team managed to win over the Detroit Herald's Sunday, 12 to 0. The efficient passing attack was missing, the Green and Gold team being unable to complete a pass.

The Herald team was penalized often, their center, who continually dove over the line, being offside most of the time, landing on the quarterback's before he had the ball.

Most of the Southfield guins were around the end. The Herald's lacked offensive power, being unable to make a first down.

The final game for Southfield was scheduled for Thanksgiving Day, with the Pontiac All-Stars, at Clarendonville.

GOAL FOR COUNTY SEAL SALE PLACED AT $15,000

The annual sale of Christmas seals by the Oakland County Tuberculosis Association begins Thursday, Thanksgiving day. The goal this year is $15,000.

Thanksgiving eve thousands of envelopes, each containing $2 worth of seals, will go into the mails for distribution throughout the County. Advance gifts this year are more than double those of last year, according to Mrs. Zelpha B. Hale, secretary of the association, and indications are that the $15,000 goal will be over-subscribed.

The amount was raised $5,000 over last year because of the increase in population in the County and the necessity for funds with which to equip the association's children's fresh air camp near Milford.
