NEW, LARGER PONTIAC "6" WILL APPEAR SHORTLY

A Pontiac Six, new in practically everything but name, shortly will appear on the market, it has been announced by the Oakland Motor Car Company.

A bigger, smarter, more powerful and more luxurious Pontiac, bringing big car features within the price range of the small six, was promised by the Oakland Company.

This announcement comes near the close of the most successful year in the company's history with an estimated total output for 1928 of close to 270,000 units, forty percent above 1927.

In preparation for 1929, extensive building projects under way here for some time past now are practically completed, and will give the Oakland-Pontiac plant a capacity next year in excess of 350,000 cars.

Keen interest in the new Pontiac Six was evidenced in automotive circles here and at Detroit because the Pontiac, first introduced in 1926, has since consistently shattered all previous sales records for a new make of car.

While embodying big car features and performance, the new Pontiac Six will remain within the price range of the smaller six, according to the announcement issued today. National showings will be held around the first of the coming year.
