Mrs. John Hill was the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Silas Gallor of Detroit, Tuesday.

Mrs. J. Mercer is giving a birthday party in honor of her little daughter Elizabeth's fifth birthday next Thursday, December 27 at the Community Hall. About 50 children are invited. Miss Esther Middlewood will sponsor the little folks, and put on the games. Lunch will be served.

The topic last Sunday evening on "What's Wrong With the School" was very ably taken care of by Mr. Baker, Supt. of Farmington. Mrs. M. Addis, and Harry Wolfe of the Pierson School Board, and Miss Warner, a teacher at Pierson School.

The Adult Bible class monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gulien in Detroit was largely attended and the program was of special tone and interest. Mrs. Earl Gulien read a fine paper on "Esther." Mrs. Ethel Middlewood read a Christmas story. The games, the fellowship, the refreshments, were all one could desire.

Miss Virginia Burchum is spending this week in Detroit as the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Isabelle Smith.

Friday night, December 21 is our annual Christmas celebration. Santa Claus will be there in person. We are also to have a Christmas tree with a stocking of nuts and candy for each child. There will also be a play put on by the Pierson School children.

Mr. and Mrs. William H. Zwahlen and daughter Shirley and Miss Sylvia Sheets were the Sunday guests of the former's sister, Mrs. Charles Decker of Detroit.

Mrs. and Mrs. Fred Gerge spent Saturday in Detroit as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Haas of Ferdinand avenue.

Miss Alice Birchum is home this week from St. Mary's School at Monroe, as the school is closed on account of the flu epidemic.

Miss Sylvia Sheets was the Sunday dinner guest of Miss Shirley Zwahlen.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wolfe were Detroit visitors Monday.

Mrs. John Mercer was a Detroit visitor Monday.
