SC not thrilled about 4-0 victory

Funny, when a 4-0 victory can be considered lackluster. That was the case when SC visited Columbus (Ohio) State College Saturday. The Occlots got their 4-0 win, keeping them unbeaten (14-0-1) and atop the region (9-0). But when a team's ranked seventh in the nation, something more is anticipated against a weak opponent.

"We expected more gools," said SC couch Van Dimitriou. "We had a tremendous number of opportunities, we just didn't finish well."

Matt Lividini provided the bulk of the offense, scoring once and ossisting on two others. Lividini get SC's first goal in the 24th minute, on a pass from Juster Prinard.

Vince Troinal followed Lividini's goal by taking a pass from him and converting in the 27th minute, making it 2-0. It stayed that way for just five minutes; in the 32nd minute, Just Five Minutes; in the 32nd minu

The final goal came in the 65th minute. Adam Carriere got it, assisted by Fadi Bazzi.

Volleyball

The Lady Ocelots continued their climb back toward respectability, and got a bit of revenge, too, when they defeat-ed Delta — who beat them car-lier — 15-2, 15-10, 15-9 Tues-day at Delta.

The win evened SC's East-ern Conference record at 4-4 and increased its overall win total to 11 in 28 matches.

Kristen Barnes and Danielle Pfoffer paced the offense. Barnes had 16 kills with a 250 kill percentage: Pfoffer had 20 kills (140), 18 assists to kills and seven digs. Tracia Clorench had 23 assists and seven digs, Julie Campau had 10 digs, and Danielle Sheehy contributed four blocks.

Madonna lacks luster at Texas tournament

Madonna University's volleyball team came up empty last weekend at the Texas Wesleyan Tournament in Fort Worth, losing three of its four matches. "It was one of those lulls "It was one of those lulis that happen," asid coach Jerry Ahraham, whose team is still ranked seventh in the NAIA. "It was probably our porest volleyball of the season. It hoping maybe this will knock us on the head and get us turned around. I don't think you learn too much from lost nig, but maybe it will serve as awake-up-call."

On Friday, Madonna beat Incernate Word (from San Antionio) 15-8, 15-13, 16-13, but then lost to 13th-ranked St.
