Capture special moments 'on location' for cable

Guess what?
Your own half-inch or 8mm camera will probably be just fine for TV. Yes, you may produce your own television show at home ("on location" in TV lingo).

SAMOUELIAN

The trick to ensuring that the visuals are secure enough to bimp up to the cablecasting format of 4-inch are to concentrate on good light and clear images. Pretend you are in slow motion as you the camera person (videographer, another TV term) capture water special moments. your special moments.

:So many people new to television production (sel that other people would not be interested in the same life experiences. They feel presumptious. Nothing could be further from the truth. Why do you think people live in a metropolitan area? The masses like to share and are curious about one another.

another.

Put together en inspirational moment, capture a spontaneous happening, recreate a drama, produce your own play, listen to your grandparents or share your pet's silly anties. Tell us your opinions on current events and express your thoughtful solutions.

These are just ideas. I'm sure yours will be perfect for our Com-munity Family Channel 12. We look forward to hearing from you. Call us at 473-7266.
