

Legal Opinion Sought

A request for a new legal opinion from Michigan Attorney General Frank Kelley concerning a possible conflict of interest among Westland City Councilmen has been submitted by City Attorney John Nellis.

The request was dated Thursday after Kelley submitted an earlier opinion on the matter of the purchase of four Ford cars for the police department.

Two councilmen Gene McKinney and Robert Wagner, are Ford Motor Co. employees, and the husband of a third, Mrs. Justine Barnes, is also a Ford employee.

Nellis felt that Kelley's first opinion on the matter was not based on accurate information concerning the employment status of Wagner and McKinney.

IN HIS letter to the attorney general, Nellis said none of the three councilmembers have any financial interest in North Brothers Ford agency, from which the city bought the police cars.

The letter from Nellis also included statements from Wagner's and McKinney's supervisors of their duties at the company.

Wagner is a program coordinator in the design center of the company and owns 29 shares of Ford stock and is responsible for coordinating design presentations for review by company management.

McKinney works primarily as an editorial assistant in the production of "Ford World," an employee newspaper.

Mrs. Barnes' husband is an hourly-rated Ford employee.

A KEY PART of Kelley's initial opinion said that there would be a conflict of interest if any of the councilmen are serving in an executive position.

The first opinion, written by Kelley on Aug. 15 and given to the council last week, was submitted by State Rep. Vincent Pettipiece of Westland.

Recruiter Honored

Westland Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3323 held a surprise party recently for Sgt. Robert Reed, local Army recruiter who will be leaving soon for an assignment in Vietnam.

Reed, a past commander of Post 3323, was invited to attend a benefit dance at the post hall at 1055 S. Wayne, but didn't know he was going to be the guest of honor.

During the event, Reed was given a life membership in the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The actual membership card hadn't arrived in time for the dance so Mrs. Amyle Palmer, member of the VFW auxiliary, made a 10-by-12 inch facsimile and presented it to him.

Sgt. Reed donated funds given to him back to the post's building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adkins headed the arrangements for the benefit dance.

Group To Tour Kidney Center

Members of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3323 Auxiliary, Westland, will tour the artificial kidney center at Wayne County General Hospital Thursday night.

Amyle Palmer, post spokesman, said that the tour will be directed by Dr. Gary O'Donald, kidney center administrator.

Mrs. Pearl Hatmaker, chairman of community services for the Westland Auxiliary, said that any interested persons may join the tour, to be held in the main conference hall on the ground floor of the hospital.

Moonshine Stolen

A half-gallon of moonshine was stolen from a Westland home last week, the police reported.
