

Bahamas Setting For Honeymoon

A honeymoon in the Grand Bahamas followed the recent marriage of Nancy Carol Holmes and Robert W. Schneider Jr. in St. Coleman Catholic Church, Farmington.

The Rev. Robert J. Kilcoyne officiated in the double-ring ceremony for the couple, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Holmes, of Redford Township, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Schneider Sr., of Bloomfield Township. A reception for 250 guests, in St. Francis Council, Farmington, followed the rites.

GIVEN BY marriage by her father, the bride wore a silk linen gown with lace at neckline and sleeves. Her shoulder veil was held by a lily of the valley crown.

Five attendants wore apricot gowns and yellow daisies in their hair, and a pair of small flower girls wore green dresses and yellow daisies.

Mrs. Lynne Lee, sister of the bride, was her matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Joan Cook, Diane Zaydel, Nancy Brainard and Judy Sorna, and Laurie and Tina Holmes were flower girls.

ATTENDING the bridegroom were Daniel Demers, as best man, ushers Gary Schneider, Fred Hatter, John Papesh and Jerry Hall, and ring-bearer Scott Lee.

Mrs. Holmes selected a green crepe dress with pearl trim, and Mrs. Schneider's coat and dress ensemble was beige lace. The couple is living in Detroit.

MRS. WILLIAM STANCHINA (Nancy Kay Drost)

Bellarmino Nuptials Unite Stanchinas

An all-white candlelight wedding recently united Nancy Kay Drost and William J. Stanchina in marriage.

The rites took place in St. Robert, Bellarmine Church, Redford Township, with the Rev. Herman Kucyk officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Drost, of Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stanchina, also of Livonia, are parents of the couple.

THE BRIDE, given in marriage by her father, wore a silk organza caged gown with stencil lace fashioning the bodice and sleeves and bordering the hemline and cathedral train.

A cathedral-length veil fell in four tiers from a crystallized orange-blossom wreath, and she carried roses, stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

EMPIRE gowns of white re-arranged by her father, were worn by Beverly Ann Miner, maid of honor, and bridesmaids Raenetta Stanchina, sister of the bridegroom, and Carol Belenky of Waukegan, Ill., and flower girl Lin Petroviak, of Cincinnati.

The gowns were accented by deep powder blue sashes and blue and lavender flowers.

STEVE LOWNEY was best man, and the groomsmen were the bride's brother, Michael Drost, and Leonard McCallie, of Livonia. Jimmy Petroviak, of Cincinnati, was ring bearer.

Ice blue raw silk in a cow-collared dress was Mrs. Drost's selection for the wedding, and Mrs. Stanchina wore mint green chiffon.

Two hundred guests attended the reception.

The couple went to Canada for the honeymoon.

The new Mrs. Stanchina is a graduate of the Ray-Vogus professional art school in Chicago. Her husband is a senior at Eastern Michigan University and a member of the Scabbard and Blade society. He will be commissioned in the U.S. Army after graduation.

Terrill-McCrary Rites Read In Farmington

Leslie Kay McCrary became the bride of Kenneth Charles Terrill in a recent double-ring ceremony in the First Presbyterian Church, Farmington.

The Rev. Robert M. Sawyer officiated at the afternoon service.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCrary of Dunford, Farmington, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Terrill, of Mulrind, Farmington.

GIVEN BY marriage by her father, the bride wore an A-line gown of white linen with lace-trimmed short sleeves and skirt.

She carried a bouquet of daisies.

Sharon Muzzerelli was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Susan McCrary, sister of the bride, and Beverly Terrill, sister of the bridegroom.

The attendant gowns were apricot A-line and each carried a single large white mum, sister of the bridegroom, and Beverly Terrill, sister of the bridegroom.

Mark Palmer served as best man. Ushers were Steve Dhus and Dave Burns.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the church fellowship hall. The couple honeymooned in northern Michigan. The bride is a 1968 graduate of North Farmington High School and is attending Lansing Community College. The bridegroom graduated from North Farmington High School and is attending Michigan State University.
