

Oldham Sings At Bond

Doug Oldham, internationally known singer, appeared in a private concert at Farmington's Bond School Oct. 10.

The concert was in answer to a request by Bond music consultant Mrs. Nancie Combs. She was acquainted with Oldham professionally before beginning her teaching assignment.

Oldham has appeared in concert at the White House and before England's Queen Elizabeth.

Among the selections were: "If I Can Help Somebody," "It Is No Secret" and "This Old House."

Airman Richard E. Davis, USN, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. P.A. Davis, 29552 Eldred, Farmington, is serving aboard the nuclear-powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise off the coast of California.

Farmington Groups Listed

Hubert G. Locke, director of the office of religious affairs at Wayne State University, will be guest speaker at the Oct. 24 annual meeting of the Big Brothers of Oakland County. The dinner meeting will begin at 7 p.m. in the Belanger House in Royal Oak.

Revised listings of all the clubs and organizations in Farmington are now available in the Farmington Board of Commerce office. The Board of Commerce is located in the north wing of the Masonic Temple at Grand River and Farmington Rd.

Each year the listing is prepared by the members of the Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary. Information about the organizations include the name of the club president, the meeting place and day and a statement of the purpose of the group.

A total of 92 Farmington organizations are listed. They include: PTA's; social clubs; homeowners associations; fraternal and service groups; and quasi-governmental organizations.

The Board of Commerce is open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. every week day except Thursday. The Thursday hours are from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. There is no charge for the listing.
