

Westland Court Officer OK'd

Despite continued objections from Councilman Virgil Gagnon, the Westland City Council approved the position of a full-time municipal court officer. The post has been sought by Westland's two municipal judges since this summer. Gagnon and Councilman Henry Lundquist cast the dissenting votes on the resolution to create the new job, which will be filled by one of the four court constables, said Judge Thomas Smith. The officer, whose duties previously were handled by a police officer from a department already hard-pressed for manpower, will be paid at the rate of $7,500 per year. Smith pointed out that his court now handles about 2,000 cases a month and that members of the detective bureau are forced to mail out subpoenas to persons required in court rather than deliver them personally as demanded by law. Gagnon urged that the matter be tabled until the first of next year. He said that the court now has enough personnel at the present time. In initiating a motion to table the issue again until January, Gagnon was supported only by Robert Wagner and Lundquist.

"I don't want to vote on something as vague as this," Councilman Virgil Gagnon pointed out that just one week before, the administration asked for $9,000 for new personnel and now it is seeking $11,000 for personnel in addition to additional labor costs. The portable ice rink was approved several weeks ago for installation at the Jaycees Park, Wildwood and Hunter. It is hoped that it will be completed by Thanksgiving. In a letter to the council, Brown said that the additional $20,000 in costs would be offset by the same amount in fees.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT Charles McElhargy reported that several meetings were held last week on the continuing issue of salary raises for supervisory personnel with the recommendation expected to be submitted to the council by next Monday. The mayor has been trying for more than a month to obtain a five per cent pay hike for his administrators to match the five per cent wage boost given to city employees.

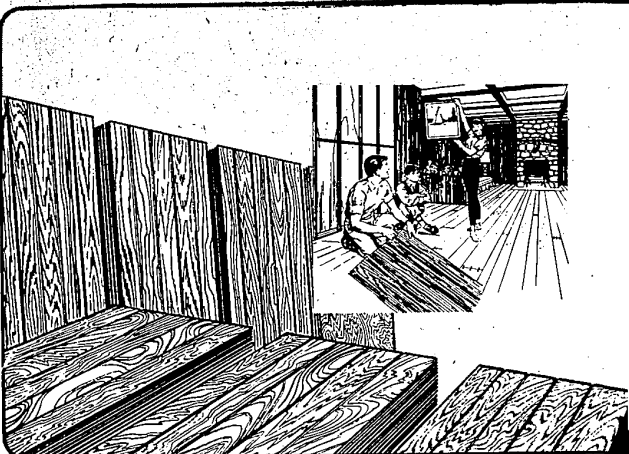

5 Arrested By Police

Five persons were arrested by the Westland police department over the weekend for being drunk and disorderly or for driving under the influence of alcohol. Arrested for being disorderly were Kimberly Graham, 22, of 28059 Krauter, Garden City, Rudolf Almaraz, 22, of 7916 Newburgh, Westland, and Jennie Clemons, 45, of 30993 Pierce, Garden City. Charged with the traffic offense were Jessie Rodriguez, 21, of Wayne, and Michael Wensko, Jr., 34, of 6826 Newburgh, Westland.

IN OTHER COUNCIL ACTION Monday, a new ordinance regulating auto bump, paint, and collision shops was formally introduced with action to be taken next Monday. The ordinance was drafted by a committee made up of three councilmen to improve a proposed ordinance drafted earlier by the city administration. A REQUEST for $20,000 to operate a new portable artificial ice rink was delayed for future action to allow for more information to be submitted. Neither Mayor Thomas Brown nor Parks Director John Voss were present Monday to answer councilmen's questions. Councilman Gene McKinney summarized his colleagues' feelings by commenting that
