

Charity Covers, Etc.
Mrs. George McFadden, the beautiful Philadelphia who made the Spanish dance of "The Roses" the feature of the Newport season, said at a dinner, in answer to a compliment on her success with this waltz:
"Yes, I had been luck with a friend of mine in Philadelphia. My friend gave a charity concert in the ballroom of her country house, and the piece de resistance of the concert was the Spanish dance, performed by six young bachelors and debutantes.
"At the entertainment's end my friend shook hands with a group of little old women from one of the homes to be benefited."
"And how did you like our Spanish dance?" she asked.
"The old women looked at one another in some embarrassment, and finally in a soothing voice one replied: "Well, ma'am, we had quite a good time, and besides, the object was so merited, and we are, the object was so deserved!"

Looking Ahead.
"So you want women to vote?"
"I have declared myself to that effect," said the keen politician.
"And I suppose you want to see a woman elected to the office you now hold?"
"No. After they have held a few spirited conventions I don't think any of them will have enough personal popularity among the members to be secure even an indorsement. But there's no reason why they shouldn't all vote for me as their champion."

After Dark.
The Easy Chair—I don't suppose there's a bit of fun about you—your '00s so deuced old.
The Colonial Sewing Table With Brass Knobs—Who says I'm old?
The Easy Chair—Why, master and so. He said you was a George II. antique.
The Sewing Table—That's what he said, is it? Well, I'm a George II. antique, that's what I am. Any fun going on tonight?
It is reported that within a short time after the acquittal of Ethel Clara Leneve of the charge of accessory after the fact to the murder of the wife of Dr. Crippen of London, she celebrated sixteen sincere offers for marriage through her attorney. Gee Vinegar! Can there be sixteen fools so down right crazy in all the wide world? Is to ask such a hussy to put a halter around their neck? Some old maid around here declared such tom-foolery awful, when there are honest and moral women, if they are not so good looking and bewitching as Ethel—waiting and watching and praying for a husband.

We celebrated the one hundredth birthday anniversary of Horace Greeley this month, and that reminds us of what he said to young men about going west to make a fortune. Times and conditions have changed in one hundred years, and we believe that old Horace would say now to the young men of our town "Stay where you are, till you get your shirt-tails and get at the job." This insane notion of thinking that the persimmon are within easier reach a thousand miles away from home has a very depressing effect upon some of our young people. Success is the reward of industry and ability.

Some persons are born mean and we pity them; others become mean and we shun them; but the meanest person is he who tries to be mean. The devil himself fears such a man.

No Piano has ever been more enthusiastically endorsed. The Artistic Case, the Easy, Responsive Action, and above all the deep, sweet, rich tone, cativate performer and listener. The united verdict is that

LOMBARD PIANOS ARE THE BEST IN THE WORLD !!

Mrs. Helen M. Slaker, 24 Grand Ave., Aurora, Ill., says: "I cannot find words in the English language to express my appreciation to you for having sent me such a beautiful instrument. I really think it is the most beautiful case I ever saw, and the tone is simply grand. I shall be glad to give you my testimonial as I think the Lombard should have the best."
Rev. Geo. Doolittle, Pres. Corpus Christi College, Galveston, Ill., says: "We are using the Lombard in our College work at Corpus Christi, and it is a pleasure to recommend it as a beautiful instrument with a deep, sweet, rich tone."
J. W. Farabee, Editor McMillan County Independent, Selmer, Tenn., says: "The instrument (Lombard Piano) fills our most aggressive expectations. It is not only a rare beauty in its outward finish, but the tone is round, full, rich and sweet. Your firm has proven to be prompt and reliable in its dealings with me."
J. Ernest Paxson, Editor Press, Parkersburg, Pa., says: "I must say that the Lombard sent me is a beautiful instrument, and a credit to a standard firm. We are more than satisfied."
R. S. Kings, President Federal Chamber Co., Washington, D. C., says: "We now realize after a careful and comprehensive trial of the Lombard by many musical artists of Washington, that it stands by its name, regardless of price or make. Every one who has tried this instrument is enthusiastic in its praise."
