DEFEATS DUFFIELD'S

Our Boys Again Put It Over the Detroiters

The First team went to Detroit Tuesday night and decisively trimmed the Duffields, who played out here a few weeks ago.

Our boys were up against a rather difficult proposition, the Duffields showing themselves to be a bunch of rowdies instead of basket ballers. They tried to start a free-for-all, but the local team was wise and kept their heads otherwise serious trouble might have resulted.

The boys put up the best game they ever showed and their team work was great. The whole team started and worked together for the common cause.

Following is the summary:

First half—Farmington, 16; Duffields, 6.
Final score—Farmington, 32; Duffields, 16.
Field baskets: Pierce 6, H. D. Warner 4, H. M. Warner 2, Dickerson 2, Jenkins 3, Nelson, Myrand.

Baskets from fouls: H. D. Warner 4 in 6; Jenkins 3 in 7.
Time of halves—15 minutes.
Referee, Gullen. Umpire, Stein.

Funeral of Hugh Ryel

The funeral services of Mr. Hugh Ryel were held last Saturday afternoon, Jan. 21st, at his late residence, 3 miles north of Farmington and interment was made in North Farmington cemetery.

Mr. Ryel was born in New York state, coming to Michigan at the age of two years. He left to mourn his loss a widow and three sons, Wm. Ryel of Novi, Frank Ryel of Commerce, John Ryel of Walled Lake, and two daughters, Mrs. Tuttle of Detroit and Mrs. Bennett of Novi, besides five grandchildren and many sorrowing friends and neighbors.

Mr. Ryel lived many years near Farmington and was widely known and respected.

High School Basket Ball

Last Saturday evening Farmington High won from the Eastern High Reserves of Detroit by a score of 15 to 16. The game was played in Farmington and quite a number witnessed the spirited game.

Our High School boys went to Holly on Tuesday evening and played the Holly High boys a large audience on the opera house floor. The date was rather unfortunate as it happened some of High school team could not go on that evening and no official could be secured for our boys either. However, it was the only date Holly could give so our boys went with just enough men to play, without one spare man and with no official to keep the Holly referee in bounds.

Our boys started out well and, though Holly team outweighed them, they had the best of the game at the end of the first half, the score being 2 to 3 in Farmington's favor. Even in the last half our boys held them until only ten minutes were left to play, when the score was 2 to 4 in Farmington's favor. But the Holly boys played two new men from their first team and rushed the game hard for the last ten minutes and won, the score finally being 4 to 10 in Holly's favor. That means that Holly and Farmington High are now tied, each having won a game from the other.

The boys are hoping to play off the rubber between the two teams sometime next month.

TRICK BIRDS OF HONG KONG

Java Sparrows Taught to Perform Clever "Stunts" for the Benefit of Travelers.

The famous Chinese conjuring birds are Java sparrows. At the corners in Hong Kong and old Chinese may be seen putting the birds through their tricks for the benefit of strangers. Each bird cage has a sliding door, and just outside this is a pack of little card cases, each containing a picture, and a small pot holding half a dozen grains of rice.

When the stranger, pursuant to the suggestion of the owner hands over the necessary coin, this is placed with the pack of cards at the cage door. Then the owner will undo the fastening of the door. The bird, eyeing the coin, then the cards, then the coin again, as if he thought his performance too cheaply valued, descends from his perch, opens the door with his beak, hops out, draws a card from the pack and passes it to his master. He receives in reward one grain of rice.

The man takes the little picture from the card received from the bird and hands it to the stranger to inspect. He then returns it to the cage, accompanied by the tiniest slip of bamboo and shuffles the case up with the rest of the pack. The bird descends, selects a case and the stranger opens it, to find it the identical one containing the bamboo.

How can this be accounted for? The only possible way of explaining is that the bamboo slip is slightly scented.

Such Is Fame!

Aldermen Gress and Coleman, Socialists, tell a good one on themselves and their party.

They were out one day posting bills on behalf of the district north of the city. Their work attracted comment from all who happened to pass.

Two old farmers came along the road and paused to glance at the bills.

"Hey, Bill, look here," shouted one to the other. "Hanged if they haven't started another political party."

"The story reminds me of a friend of mine who was travelling through the mountains of Tennessee," said Alderman Welley, when the story was told.

"It was at the time that President Garfield died. While my friend was passing a cabin an old woman came to the door.

"Heard the news?" he asked her.

"No," she returned.

"The president has been shot and he is dead!"

"The woman turned and rushed toward the barn, calling loudly to her husband: 'Bill! Oh, Bill! We're lost!'

"He's dead."—Milwaukee Free Press.
