They threw a victory party Friday night at Redford Catholic Central, complete with a cake for legendary coach Bernie Holowicki.
All would agree there's nothing stale about the cake or the coach.
Holowicki, who works as hard today as he did in 1953, when his coaching career started at Detroit St. Hedwig, carned career win 600 with a 78-43 victory over visiting Harper Woods Notre Dame.
Holowicki, 500-213 overall, is the third high school basekball coach in Michigan to reach 600, joining a club that includes retired coaches Lofton Greene of River Rouge (739 wins) and Paul Cook of Lansing Eastern (635).
CC is 5-3 overall, 3-1 in the Catholic League Central Division.
"To have my sons and friends in here and CC to give me the party, that's real nice," Holowicki, 62, said. "I never expected this. I just thought the game's over have Warren DelaSsile and that 600-59 kid (Jim Miller) on Tuesday,"

As for the cake, it was baked foot-9 kld (Jim Millier) on Aues-day."

As for the cake, it was baked Monday night by the mother of CC senior guard Andy Kummer in anticipation of Holowicki winning No. 600 on Tuesday against New Boston Huron. That game was postponed due to the cold weather, but the cake stayed fresh

All that was missing on Seniors Night was 600 candles.
"Coach Holowicki is a great guy and I love to be a part of this," Kummer said. "He's kind of like add to us. He'll cus you out on the court and tell you what he thinks but then he's your best friend after the game."
The milestone came against

The milestone came sgainst ND conch Mike Maltese, who played for Holowicki at Warres DeLoSalic before graduating in 1971. Holowicki took over the next senson at CC.

Maltese said he gave Holowicki ac congratulatory card before the game. With ND's leading scorer and rebounder, 6.7 sophomore Tim Mott, out with bronchitis, maltese figured the card would be open after the game.

open after the game.

The Irish fell to 2-6 overall, 0-4 in the Central Division.

"Those guys (CC's players) were hungry to get him it," Mattess said. "It think of coach Holowicki as someone special. It somebody had to be it, I'm glad be got 600 against me."

CC ended the first quarter with an ine straight points for a 13-4 lead. The Shamrocks started the second quarter with an 11-2 rut to go ahead 24-6 en route to a 40-

16 halftime lead.
Three CC players scored in double figures, led by 6-foot junior guard Mike Ridley with 17 points on six-of-10 shooting, including two three-point shots. Kummer made all five of his field-goal attempts and finished with 13 points and sophomore guard Justin Hoener added 11 points.

Joe Daly, a 6-7 senior center. scored all eight of his points in the first helf, and he had a teamhigh six rebounds befort Holowicki empited his bench ir he second helf. The Shamocki enjoyed a 34-27 rebounding advantage with Hoener and Ridley adding five each.

Soldom-used sophomore for-ward Richard Turk had six points off the bench and reserve junior forward Jon Kandes put the fin-ishing touches on the win with a three-pointer at the buzzer. "I like the way the "I like the way the second group played; they were very un-selfish and played great defense," Holewicki said.

There was concern after the game, however, for sentor guard Andy Slankster, who injured his hip and elbow in a fall to the floor.

ND shot only 33 percent from the field (15-46). The Irish, who trailed 58-22 after three quarters, were led by senior guard Anthony Vitalo's 13 points.

And the state department of health is considering both a five-foot and a two-meter depth requirement (in doing so, the department has opted to disregard a University of Nebrasks study that concluded 3½ feet was adequate). "I'm not quite sure why we're rating all this attention," said Salem coach Chuck Olsen. "We've proven we're a safe sport, that there's not that many injuries. to accept Roberts' claims. Football less ausceptible to injury than awimming? Even maizand-blue football coach Gary Moelier would have a hard time accepting that rot.

It's a good thing that the Farmington school board has a 12-foot depth planned for the starting-block end of its new $500,000 pool at North Farmington, scheduled to open in mid-August.

Of course by then, swimming may be completely outlawed by the MHSAA.

Marlins lose court contest

Serving errors continued to be the Achilles heel of the Farmington Hills Mercy vol-leyball team Thursday. The Marlins missed 18 serves and dropped to 0-4 in the Central Division following a three-game loss to visiting Birmingham Marian (12-15, 15-5, 8-15).

Birmingham Marian (12-15, 5-18-15).

"We're getting there," Mercy coach Peggy Spengler said. "We blocked well, we played good defense and we passed well. But we couldn't keep momentum on our side."

Mercy's Christiane Grant had 10 kills out of 27 attacks and six blocks. Jamesea Emerson and Jill Higgins had five and four kills, respectively, with nine attacks each. Higgins and Meaghan O'Brieth and five digs apiece, Emerson one attiff block, Heather Grieg 10 assists and (15 set) and Kim Sanders five serve receptions.

fouls worked against Farmington. "We had a lend and didn't do things we needed to do to protect the lead," Mikel said. "For some reason, we stopped attacking the lead instead of stretching it, and it kinds backfired on us." Mikel and Negoshian lauded the other Farmington players for "playing with heart" and attempting to fill the vold as best they could.
