

Glenn prepares for big test: Salem

The stage is set.

Westfield's John Glenn will play host to Plymouth Salem Friday to determine the winner of the Western Lakes Activities Association Lakes Division boys basketball race.

Glenn guaranteed itself a shot at the title with a 53-47 victory Tuesday over host Farmington Hills Harrison.

The Rockets improved to 12-3 overall and 9-1 in the WLAA. Plymouth Salem is 15-1 overall and 10-0 in the WLAA.

Harrison fell to 7-9 overall, 3-7 in the WLAA.

Senior forward Tony Goins and Savon Hubbard led Glenn with 13 points each.

Albert Jones had 12 points and 6-foot-10 junior forward Guy Rucker had eight points, 10 rebounds and five blocks and the "probably altered 10 of them."

Harrison coach Mike Teachman.

BASKETBALL

"We tried to make the others beat us but Jones and Hubbard rose to the occasion. We gave it our best try. They were just too good."

Aaron Weiss led Harrison with 16 points and 12 rebounds, and Calvin Pruitt scored nine points and had 12 rebounds.

Glenn led 14-13 after one quarter before gaining a 29-22 halftime advantage. The Rockets carried a 46-33 lead into the fourth quarter.

FRANKLIN 76, FARMINGTON 52: Livonia Franklin used a 28-8 start to trigger a 76-52 victory over visiting Farmington in WLAA cross-town play.

The win lifted Franklin above .500 to 7-6 overall, 5-4 in the WLAA. Farmington fell to 10-6 overall, 5-5 in the WLAA.

Paul Krusick scored 24 points to lead Franklin. Mark Baluk scored 15 and Jason Maschke 10. Greg Maple had nine points and 10 rebounds and Clemente Herrera distributed the ball well, according to coach Larry Jackson. Scott Menner led Farmington with 15 points and Steve Juncal added 10.

CLARENCEVILLE 70, LUTHERAN NW 68: Livonia Clarenceville recovered from a 20-19 deficit after one quarter Tuesday and defeated visiting Rochester Lutheran Northwest in a Metro Conference game.

The Trojans improved to 8-7 overall, 5-5 in the Metro. Lutheran Northwest is 5-10 overall, 2-9 in the Metro.

Mark Kalaj led three players in double figures for Clarenceville with 25 points and 12 rebounds. Mark Berry had 14 points and eight rebounds and John Kalaj added nine points.

Jeremy Harrison led Northwest with 21 points, all on three-pointers. Six of the triples came in the first half.

Clarenceville trailed 43-38 at halftime before outscoring Lutheran Northwest 19-12 in the third quarter to tie the score at 55.

Clarenceville held a 11-1 advantage in the fourth quarter.

Lutheran Northwest made only 5-16 free throws compared to Clarenceville's 8-12.

REDFORD CC 84, KIMBALL 48: Senior guard Andy Kummer scored a season-high 27 points Tuesday to lead host Redford Catholic Central past Royal Oak Kimball in a nonleague game.

Senior guard Andy Slinkster had 17 points, including four three-pointers, for the Shamrocks, who led 41-26 at halftime.

CC is 11-4 overall. Kimball, coached by 1980 CC graduate Mike Lewis, fell to 7-9.

ROCK 73, BENEDECITE 56: D.J. MacAlone (24) and Brian Kalcymak (21) led the Warriors to this Catholic League win Tuesday over Detroit Benedicite.

The game was tied 14-11 after the first quarter, but the Warriors shot ahead to stay with a 17-9 second-quarter scoring outburst. Rice enjoyed a 42-33 scoring advantage in the second half.

"It was a good game and a good way to prepare for the Catholic League tournament," Rice coach Frank Caruso said.

"We had good overall team play tonight and passed the ball really well."

Rice (9-7 and 4-6) begins the playoffs at Catholic Central against No. 1-ranked (Class C) Detroit DePozze.

HOCKEY

featuring excellent goaltending by Brusseau and Trenton's Ed Pilch. CC erupted for five goals in the third.

"Coach left us alone, and we pumped ourselves up," said forward for defenseman Mark Holdridge, who had his first career two-goal game.

"It was pretty quiet in the locker room, but then we got ourselves focused to play the third. We just weren't ready to play. Maybe we were looking ahead to Rice."

The first of four unanswered goals came after Joe Heady won a faceoff deep in the Trenton zone. The puck was poked away from a Trojan by Jason Couture, who blasted a shot over Pilch's glove.

His 16th of the year, to tie the game at 1-1.

CC took the lead for keeps when Holdridge's drive from the blue line was deflected over Pilch's stick by a Trojan, Jeff Helmer, who set up the play by digging the puck out of the corner, had the assist.

The Shamrocks took advantage of a giveaway by Trenton's Joe Caselli, as Heady skated in alone on Pilch and made no mistake with a shot to the top shelf.

Heady's 13th tally of the year was unassisted.

After a scoreless second period,

Just 45 seconds later, Chris Gonzalez centered the puck to Dan Hunt, who luck-handed a shot past Pilch. Holdridge drew an assist.

Trenton coach Skip Howey said his Trojans were too kind with their handling of the puck in the third.

"We played well for two periods and then handed them the game on a silver platter," Howey said.

"We made four glaring mistakes and you can't expect to win when you do that, especially against Catholic Central."

St. John, however, saw things differently.

"I have the basic feeling that we create our own breaks," he said.

The Trojans narrowed the margin to 4-2 as Caselli buried a one-timer past Brusseau.

CC answered when Holdridge tipped in a pass behind the net from Couture. Heady recorded his second assist on the goal.

"No question they had us outplayed for two periods, but then they may have tired a bit," St. John said.

"We were also real sloppy in our own end in the first two periods, and Trenton's forechecking had something to do with that."

Trenton, which had lost to CC 4-1 earlier this season, outshot the Shamrocks, 30-23.

GYMNASTICS

Following are the results of the YMCA girls gymnastics meet at the Farmington YMCA on Feb. 11. Sixty-two girls, ranging in age from 6 to 15, representing the Farmington, Birmingham and Warren teams competed.

Ocelots down OCC women

Whoa! Who was that team Saturday night?

The uniforms and scoreboard indicated that it was Schoolcraft's Lady Ocelots, but the team on the floor hardly resembled the team that had struggled around .500 most of the season.

"That was as perfect a game as we can play," said coach Jack Green after his team's impressive win against Oakland CC Saturday, 62-58.

Here's how good they were: The Lady Ocelots shot 63 percent from the floor (33-for-48) and 100 percent in the first half (20-for-28). And defensively, they choked the OCC offense, forcing it out to the perimeter where the Lady Raiders were an icy 17 percent (6-for-39) from three-point range.

Shelly Sockow led Schoolcraft with 23 points and five steals. Tricia Kazyska added 19 and Angie Cerio 14. Cerio has now reached double digits in all 15 games this season. Alissa Wechter contributed 12 points and 10 rebounds.

OCC men win
Oakland Community College slipped behind Schoolcraft in men's basketball Saturday, 57-56.

The Ocelots had all sorts of shots at winning, including two in the closing seconds. But Dan Pentula's 10-foot bounce off the rim, and Mike Fichten's rebound buzzer attempt missed, too.

OCC trailed 31-28 at the half. But the Raiders' defense was just as suffocating.

CC-Rice game to decide division

Redford Catholic Central scored four goals in the first 4:30 of the third period Tuesday, lifting the Shamrocks to a big 5-2 hockey victory at Trenton.

The win set up Saturday's showdown against Birmingham Brother Rice for the outright Michigan Metro West Division title.

The Shamrocks' only league loss was to Rice earlier this season, 2-1.

The state's top two ranked teams tangle at 8 p.m. Saturday at the Redford Ice Arena.

"That will be for all the marbles," CC coach Gordon St. John said. "If we're not going to be ready for them, then we won't be ready for anybody."

CC, 17-1 overall and ranked No. 1 in Class A, improved to 11-1 in the West. Meanwhile, the Trojans, ranked No. 4, slipped to 8-2 in the division.

The Shamrocks took awhile to get going. Maybe looking ahead to Saturday, they were thoroughly outplayed by Trenton during the first two periods.

Trenton's Joe Ottenbreit opened the scoring when he tipped in his own rebound past CC goalie Mike Brusseau at 6:26 of the first period.

After a scoreless second period,

Just 45 seconds later, Chris Gonzalez centered the puck to Dan Hunt, who luck-handed a shot past Pilch. Holdridge drew an assist.

Trenton coach Skip Howey said his Trojans were too kind with their handling of the puck in the third.
