With three Central starters stuck on the bench with no substitutions remaining. Lindstrom went to his bench and the reserves responded.

Despite three service errors, which enabled Harrison to servo for the match point three times, the Vikings finally mounted a raily.

by the White Infally mounted a raily.

Freshman Jennifer Keeler came up with a huge play when she gave Central the lead for good at 15-14 with a tip kill. Junior Tricla Willfam; then iced the champion-ship with un acc serve.

"We routed and rotated and were finally out of rotations," Lindstrem said. "I put in some kids at the end of the game than Int played in a couple of weeks, and they really came through."

The Hawks also came up short in the opening game of the finals.
After a see-saw battle in the early part, Harrison finally appeared to take charge when junior Krista Snow served five straight points to give the Hawks at 13-10 lead. A kill by senior Maggie Chavez put Harrison on top 14-11, but a service error gave Central the serve and the Vikings selred the opportunity.

A kill by Central sophomore Jessica Regentin followed by an eace serve by senior Becky Harvey tied the game at 14. Sonior Jennifer O'Donnell served out the game for the win.

"All in all I thought we played well," Shortt said. "It was a heartbreaker to lose like that, es-pecially when you're sitting on game point and you don't get it done."

Harrison got it done in the second geme with strong serving. An acc serve by junior Lori Hubble gave Harrison an 8.7 lead and a kill by Perkins followed by an acc by junior Jodd Barringer put the Hawks on top 11-7. Ault sealed the victory at 15-11 with yet another acc serve.

The Hawks end the season with a school-record 27 wins against just nine losses. They won the WLAA Western Division title, the Harrison Invitational crown and the championship of the Marcomb Community College tournament.

"I'm very happy with our season," Shortt said. "We kind of sputtered a little at the end of the year, but we came back real well today. This is the best team we've ever had."

The Hawks advanced to the title match with 15-5, 15-5 wins over Welled Lake Western, while Central advanced by beating Farmington 15-4, 15-0. Farmington opened the tournament with a 15-8, 15-5 triumph over North Farmington.

Late rally lifts CC over Rice

By MARTY BUDNER

Jon Heady has scored some huge goals for Redford Catholic Contral in the past couple of

He added to his legend Saturday evening in the Class A regional championship game against archival Birmingham Brother Rice.

A senior winger playing over a badly injured foot, Heady notched the goal that lifted the Shamrocks to a thrilling 2-1 victory before an overflow crowd of nearly 2,000 spectators at the Redford Ice Are-

CC (21-1-2) now plays Trenton the Tribo pm. Wednesday at Wyandotte's Yack Arena in the state quarterfinals. Heady's goal came just 24 sec-onds after junior forward Danny Hunt had tied the game for CC at 1-1 with 2:17 left in regulation time.

1-1 with 2:17 left in regulation time.

Ord fans will recall that Heady scored a goal with 12 seconds left in regulation time to force overtime in last year's regional semificial calast against Livonia Stevenson. Then he won the game in overtime.

"I thought that was the greatest feeling last year," said Heady. "But this goal, coming against a big-time rival like Brother Rice, was even bigger. I just shot it at the net knowing anything could happen, and it went my way."

The Shamrocks, who lost and tied Rice during the regular season, were very fortunate in this game.

Brother Rice, dominated the

Brother Rice dominated the first two periods, outshooting the Warriors by a 22-7 margin. The only Rice taily came early in the game when Mike Jalaba wristed a shot home after a scramble in front of the net.

The Warriors could have had four more goals had it not been for the fine play of CC's senior goals Michael Brusseau.

Berkely came back to take a 14-13 lead in first, but an Emerson kill tied it. On the last rotation, Ruddock put Mercy ahead and spihomore Sheyanne Mooter served an ace for the winning point.

In the second game, three straight kills by Emerson helped the Marlins rally from a 9.7 deficit to lead 10-9. Mercy went ahead 14-9 on four kills or blocks for points by Grant with Grieg serving. The Bears (13-16-5) rallied briefly until Grieg got the final point with a tip.

- Berkley was ahead 5-4 when its leading hitter, Elizabeth Klatt, turned an ankle and left the game, and they were down 10-9 when she returned.

"We've been playing 11 or 12 kids in every game," Berkley coach Theresa Stanichuk said. "It's not like our No. 1 hitter'was gone and the kids collapsed.

"We just have a tough time winning, pulling it out at the end. That's been our downfall all year."

The Marlins relied mostly on serving to win the first two matches. Erin Mough had five aces and Theresa Cisco four against Southfield. Grant was the top attacker with five kills and five attacker with five kills and five attempts.

Mercy was behind 6-3 to Fordwhen Meghan O'Brien (six aces) served seven points in a row. Ruddock had three hits and two kills.

Ford is always among of the top teams in the Detroit Public School League, but the Lady Trojans have one senior and one junior among their 11 players this year.
