"I have a lot of high hopes for the center just in terms of what's hoppening in Pontlace," Toth said, referring to new businesses and salleries in the city.

A good impetus for growth is the World Cup Soccer, coming to the area this year.

In connection with the World Cup, the center is conducting a Tabirt design centest and will turn the first floor into a soccer field, with people depicted watching a soccer game. Faces will be drawn in the crowd for a donation, and children will play soccer with a foam ball in the room. An exhibit

"That should be a fun way of getting involved," Toth said of the soccer-related events at the the soci facility.

The center and the Cranbrook Academy of Art Museum are the only two art agencies in Oakland County accredited by the Ameri-can Association of Museums, Toth said.

"We're very proud of that."
