"In the Breaking of the Bread"

Dr. Richard C. Cheatham

He that plants
trees loves others
besides himself.
— Thomas Fuller

"I have given you every tree, in which is the fruit of a tree yielding seed."
— Genesis 1:29

God Made The Trees; Let's Plant Them On Arbor Day

Trees are what many of us merely take for granted, as part of the background of our lives. In fact, we are more likely to notice their absence.

Many years ago, a newspaper publisher who moved to Nebraska was appalled by a large area, where all the trees had been cut down to make room for a development, and decided to launch a widespread tree planting project; thus was born Arbor Day. It has no specific date, but its scheduling varies in different parts of the country according to the climate, so you should find out when it will take place in your area. Arbor Day is observed by school children, garden clubs and many community organizations.

Let us thank God for making trees, which provide us with their beauty and shade; and now it is up to all of us to plant them.
