

Ford tournament proves good idea

It was just an idea, then it became a "better idea." Now it is going to be reality. That is the first ever "Ford Team Challenge" bowling tournament.

There are a good number of Ford dealers in the area, with just about every Ford Motor Co. facility being represented by bowling leagues. The event will take place at Super Bowl in Canton over four weekends in October and November.

Eligibility will be limited to sanctioned Ford League bowlers and their spouses. While the details are still being worked out, this will be a really good tournament with plenty of prize money, jackpots and the Ford championship trophy.

With so many Ford bowlers around, it should become one of the best amateur bowling tournaments in this area. As this is the first published announcement for the event, it is hoped that there will be some interested parties who would like to help in some way.

If you have any "better ideas," you can call Pam Johnson, co-director at 437-6070.

With the regular season winding down to the final few weeks in most leagues, this is the time where the pressure is on. Every shot counts, an extra strike or a missed spare can make the difference between the champions and the also-rans. For some, this is the most exciting time of the season. Some others "can hardly wait to get out the golf clubs."

Marlins register 4th straight win

Farmington Hills Mercy improved to 4-0 in girls soccer Monday by defeating host Harper Woods Regina 6-1.

The Marlins, who are 3-0 in the Catholic League Central Division, trailed 1-0 after allowing an early goal but rallied to lead 4-1 at halftime.

Betsy Gignac scored two goals and had one assist to lead Mercy, and Emily Lawrence assisted on the three goals.

Theresa Clisco and Flannery Campbell tallied first-half goals, and Marisa Spinazze and Erin Solisson capped the scoring in the second half. Katie Cleere also had an assist.

Both Chmielewski played the first half in goal for the Marlins and had five saves. Lynn Digro-limo the second half with four saves. Mercy fired 14 shots at the Regina goal.

"We could have played a better game," Mercy coach Deepak Shivraman said. "We were real sluggish at the start."

"We kept putting the ball up in the air. We didn't play the way we're capable of playing, but we had some strong individual performances from Gignac and Lawrence."

SOCCER

Lynn Dreniack, Sienna DeAgostino and Digro-limo also played well, according to Shivraman. Mercy plays host to Bishop Foley at 4 today.

SOCCER SCORES

Livonia Franklin jumped the front 5-0 in the first half Monday and defeated visiting North Farmington 6-3.

Lisa DeShano scored three goals and had one assist for the Patriots, 2-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association, and 3-1 overall. The Raiders are 1-2 and 1-2.

Farmington Harrison lost 7-0 Monday to No. 3-ranked Plymouth Canton. Mandy Salin and Jenny Parvainen scored two goals each for the Chiefs, who recorded their fourth consecutive shutout.

Canton is 1-0 in the Western Division and 4-1 overall, Harrison 0-1 and 0-3 overall (all in the WLAA).
