Banners hanging around Southfield's Civic Center Complex describe Southfield as "The International City." Other banners around the complex say "Celebrate Diversity." As Oakland County's largest city with 75,000 residents and a daytime population of 275,000, these banners are a reminder of the specialness that comes with being a city in more than a legal definition.

As would be expected of a true city, Southfield has much to offer. It has hotel and convention sites, exposition space that attracts events like camera, computer and bridal shows, a large ice arena, and two public swimming pools. There are 30 parks with many types of facilities ranging from golf courses and driving ranges to shuffleboard courts and fitness trails.

Cultural activities abound with some of the favorites being the Concerts-in-the-Garden at Prudential Town Center, the Kids Concerts and the Southfield Symphony Orchestra.

Southfield's challenge is to continue to maintain and celebrate the rich diversity which make it such an interesting place.
