

Taking the base: Harrison's Amanda Ault leaves no doubt she's safe at third base Monday during the victory over Canton.

Hawks blast defending champ

The Farmington Hills Harrison softball team's latest win was one the Hawks certainly relished.

The Hawks got even with perennial power Plymouth County for the many losses suffered in recent years Monday by beating the host Chiefs 9-4.

Whereas errors have hurt Harrison in the past, Canton committed six and the Hawks just one.

Erin LaCasse pitched a three-hitter for Harrison and walked just five. The Hawks managed five hits off losing pitcher Jackie Nikavri, who walked six but didn't allow an earned run.

Harrison is 1-1 in the Western Division and 3-2 overall. The defending league champion Chiefs are 0-2 and 5-4.

Junior Jenny Mydinski had two hits, including a triple for two hits, including a triple for two hits, including a triple for two hits.

■ NORTH 8, STEVENSON 1: North Farmington pitcher Melonie Cheney, after four hits, struck out 10 and used only two walks Monday at Livonia Stevenson.

The Hawks are 1-1 in the Lakes Division and 3-2 overall. The Spartans are 1-1 and 1-8.

Farmington just misses victory

Farmington was on the verge of a big baseball win over host Plymouth County when the Rocks scored twice in the late innings Monday to snatch a 4-3 victory.

The Falcons led 3-2 after Ron Salomonson hit a two-run homer in the third inning.

Salem capitalized on a Farmington error to tie in the sixth. The Rocks won the game in the bottom of the seventh when Sam LaGrow hit a wind-blown triple and scored on Matt Abbott's sacrifice fly.

Both teams received strong pitching from their starters.

Nirav Kher went the distance for Salem, striking out eight, issuing one (intentional) walk. Mike Williams turned in a complete game for the Falcons, an effort that included nine strikeouts and four walks.

Salem outbait Farmington 5-3. Dale Domata had two hits for the Falcons, who made four errors.

■ STEVENSON 14, NORTH 11: The Spartan outbaited the host Raiders 17-11.

SOFTBALL

Senior catcher Kate Mackie was knocked for a third time by a pair of doubles, struck in two runs and scored three times.

Junior Renee Dink also had three hits and two RBIs, and she scored two runs. Sophomore Amy Finkel had two RBIs with a pair of fielder's choices, and senior Courtney Carlson drove in one run with a single.

The Raiders were 2-2 in a weekend tournament in Rochester.

In one of four eight team pools Saturday, North lost to Troy and Royal Oak Kimball 6-2 and defeated Walled Lake Western 2-0.

Becky Thurman was the winning pitcher against Western and helped her cause by going 2 for 3 as dad Mackie and Brian Cheney was the pitcher in both losses.

On Sunday in Flight E (fifth place), the Raiders defeated Birmingham Seaholm 4-2 and were tied 1-1 with Walled Lake Central when the tournament was stopped because of rain.

Cheney was the winning pitcher against Seaholm. She and Renee Quillette had one hit and one RBI apiece. Allison Stein scored the only run against Central.

■ MERCY 4-3, RICHMOND 3-8: Debbie Drexler and Piper Metz hit back-to-back homers in the sixth inning to give the host Marlins the win in the first game Monday.

Monday and broke a 7-7 tie with four runs in the fourth inning.

Chris Chicella (three doubles and seven RBIs), Chris Hollman and Todd Smith (solo homer) had four hits apiece for the winners. Corey Myers had three hits for North.

Savannah's Glenn Pittman pitched a complete game and didn't walk any batters. Devin Glasser started and worked a third of an inning for the Raiders.

North is 0-2 in the Lakes Division and 1-5 overall. Stevenson is 1-1 and 4-4.

■ CANTON 8, HARRISON 2: The visiting Chiefs scored five runs in the first three innings Monday. Scott Valmont pitched a complete-game victory, allowing four hits and two walks.

Harrison starter Dave Hensel pitched three innings and took the loss, giving up five runs on four walks. Ed Kennedy threw four innings of solid relief.

Freshman Adam Smerski had two hits, including a double, and one RBI for the Hawks, 0-2 in the Western Division and 3-2 overall.

■ REDFORD CO 4-6, NORTH DAME 2-3: Senior southpaw Dave Sussale (2-0) struck out 12 and pitched a three-hitter for the visiting Shamrocks in the opener Saturday.

Chris Mialak and Andy Blankner also had two hits apiece for CC. Blankner also had two hits apiece for CC. Blankner also had two hits apiece for CC.

Marlins 3rd in county; Lahser wins title again

BY MARTY BUNNER AND DAVE O'NEARA STAFF WRITERS

Bloomfield Hills Lahser, the No. 3-ranked team in Class A, entered the 14th Annual Oakland County golf tournament at Pontiac Country Club as an overwhelming favorite Tuesday.

And Birmingham's Marjan's Molly Syron, whose back yard literally abuts the host course, was labeled as the individual to beat.

But if the Lahser team or Syron felt any pressure, they certainly didn't show it.

The Knights pulled to the championship by 17 strokes over Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook-Kingswood. Lahser registered a 383 while Cranbrook-Kingswood, ranked No. 3 in Class B-C-D, shot an even 400.

Farmington Hills Mercy was third at 405, and Rochester (411) and Troy (438) rounded out the top five teams.

"I guess we were favored because we have four of our girls from last year," said Lahser coach Bob Kefgen, whose team has captured three of the past five county crowns.

"You always like to be the underdog. I think you do have to worry about (the pressure of) being a favorite. It's just whether or not you can live up to what you're expected to do."

"But our girls did a good job today. We've been doing well, and so far they're keeping their heads on straight."

Lahser, undefeated in four dual meets, has received balanced scoring all year and it surfaced again at county.

All four Knight scorers placed among the top 15 medalists. Senior Marcy Glenn paced the effort with a 91 that was good for third place overall.

Cranbrook-Kingswood had three players finish among the top 15. Senior Kathy Chao shot a 94 and junior Kristie Bosart and Elizabeth Cunningham each finished at 98.

Syron, who was eighth overall last year, finished with an 11-over par 83 (40-45). The difference for Syron was a birdie on the par-3 eighth hole and an eagle on the par-5 ninth. She carded six pars.

Despite playing on her home course, the Marjan senior was surprised she won.

"I was flabbergasted. My goal was to place in the top 10," she said. "Being on my home course, I could have choked very easily. I was nervous. There was more pressure, but I like it."

"I never took golf seriously until this year. I think I'm a very inconsistent player. To my recollection, I've never broken 100 before — at least not when it counted."

Mercy had hoped to finish second but was not disappointed to be third; however, some individuals were unhappy with their results, coach Vicky Kowalski said.

The team's top golfer, Amy Schulkins, was well above her average at 104. She averages 47 1/2 strokes for nine holes and had shot 91 and 97 in tournaments last week. Sommer Woods, who carded 90 and 99 in the same events, finished at 100.

Woods and Karen Porter, who led the Marlins with a 97, still received medals. Porter was seventh and Woods 14th. The top 15 were honored.

Mercy's Tina Madej (103) tied for 15th but lost a tie breaker to determine who would get the last medal. Schulkins was 19th and Sara Horgan shot 113 to complete the Mercy contingent.

"We're OK as far as where we'll fit in the regional," Kowalski said. "Cranbrook-Kingswood won't be there because they're in B-C-D. I told the girls it looks good from that standpoint that we'll qualify for state again, because it will be just these teams there."

"We were just a little bit higher than we would have liked, and we know we're capable of being under 400."
