

CARRIER OF THE MONTH: FARMINGTON

David, 14, delivers the Observer in Kendalwood subdivision. He has been delivering the Observer since May 1991.

The North Farmington ninth-grader's favorite subjects are biology and gym.

His hobbies are baseball and hockey card collecting. He graduated from Dunckel Middle School with honors and was recognized by his teachers with the Academic Award of Excellence. He is one of five freshmen to make the junior varsity baseball team at North Farmington.

David is the son of Dan and Toby Gosselin. If you want to be a Farmington Observer carrier, please call 591-0800

'Sharing session' scheduled

An "Expanded Discussion & Sharing Session" is on the agenda for the Thursday, May 12, open meeting of the Interagency Council of Farmington/Farmington Hills.

The meeting begins at 7:30 a.m. at the Farmington Community Center, 24705 Farmington Road, Farmington Hills.

The Interagency Council is an umbrella group for Farmington-area organizations. Those who attend the meeting should bring brochures, fliers and pamphlets regarding their organizations.

For more information, call Elaine McDermott at 474-7204.

The Dunckel Booketeers

get out. get cool.

It's called Get Real Summer Fun!, and it's going to be a blast! Kids can make friends with others their own age, play sports, learn about the environment, take field trips to cool places and go on imaginary journeys all over the country. Each day will be a new adventure!

Kids up to 12-years-old can be a part of Get Real Summer Fun! on a full-time or part-time schedule. It's your choice! But whichever way you choose, one thing is for sure—the real fun this summer vacation is at Children's World!
