A Good Mother Is Always There When She Is Needed

A mother must do many things
To solve the problems childhood brings:
She's always there to dry their tears
And bandage cuts and calm their fears.
She taught the meaning of good deeds
And how to care for someone's needs;
Preparing for the teenage years
And helping choose their life's careers.
She taught them how to do things right,
And always keep their goals in sight.
And meanwhile, hoping they've acquired
Character to be desired.
Faith will illustrate the worth
Of motherhood from time of birth.
She showed her love in every way,
So honor her on Mother's Day.

— Gloria Nowak

Motherhood is, after all,
woman's great and incomparable work.
—Edward Carpenter
