

Processional parting: The Mercy High Class of 1994 had 189 graduates, including seven students who achieved 4.0 grade-point averages.

Commencement cold: Mercy graduates Allison Vigi and Lori Kelley, both from Plymouth, huddled up with Lynn Leslie of Farmington Hills in low 40s temperatures during commencement at Oakland University's Baldwin Pavilion.

Inside and outside the school setting. Seven Mercy seniors graduated with a 4.0 GPA.

Of the graduating class, 31 are headed to Michigan State University and another 30 are going to the University of Michigan. Many plan to major in engineering, Doelker said.

The Mercy High principal also noted the warmth and camarader-is of this class. That was seen in the number who turned out for the school's all-night party afterward. Of 189 in the class, 182 were there to jump on a Velcro wall, line dance and take a spin on the Orbitron well into the morning.

Festivities lasted until 5 a.m.

"This class had a lot of spirit," Doelker said.
