

Schoolcraft College hosts piano teachers workshop

PREVIEW

World-renowned pianist Antonio Nel, a member of the University of Michigan piano faculty, will conduct a piano teachers' workshop featuring the music of Felix Mendelssohn Tuesday-Wednesday, June 14-15, at Schoolcraft College, Livonia.

Nel has appeared with orchestras and as a recitalist across North America, Europe and his native South Africa. He made his debut at age 12, after only two years of study, with the Beethoven C Major Concerto. Today, he is considered one of the most outstanding pianists of his generation.

The workshop, for all abilities, runs 8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Liberal Arts Building on campus, 18600 Haggerty. A question and answer period will be held. Fees in advance are $40, one day; $55, two days. Fees at the door are $45, one day; $50, both days.

To register, call Continuing Education Services: (313) 482-4448.

Teachers will learn important steps in preparing students for the most accessible and appealing pieces composed by Mendelssohn.

They also will explore techniques to expand students' abilities to perform more difficult pieces and to present repertoire that students and teachers alike can enjoy throughout a lifetime of music making.

Instructors include Daniel Horn, associate professor of piano, Wheaton College Conservatory of Music, Wheaton, Ill.; Eugene Boasart, Earl V. Moore professor emeritus of music, University of Michigan and artist in residence, Schoolcraft College; and Donald Morelock, Schoolcraft's Piano Department chairman, Ann Arbor Bach Association director and member of the National Committee on Piano Teachers' Certificate programs.

"Still wondering where to go to college? Here's some advice... Make Walsh College your second choice!"

David A. Spencer
President, Walsh College

"Why second? The reason is simple. Walsh College offers the final two years of a bachelor degree giving us the ability to concentrate on doing what we do best... business education."

If you're a recent high school graduate or want to go back to school and follow a business career path, here is my advice. Make Oakland Community College your first choice, then transfer to Walsh College for your last two years.

Over the years, I have been impressed with the quality of education that students receive at OCC before transferring to Walsh. With the sound educational foundation they receive at the community college level and the specialized education at Walsh, they are equipped to achieve their goals."

Walsh College offers undergraduate degrees in:

- Accounting
- Computer Information Systems
- Finance
- General Business
- Management
- Marketing
