A. EMMET GREEN PASSES AWAY

One of Farmington's Leading Citizens for More than Fifty Years

Addis Emmett Green, son of Zephaniah Ripley and Zerilla (Gould) Green was born in Livonia, Livingston Co., N. Y., Oct. 17, 1827. There he spent the first five years of his life, coming with his parents to West Bloomfield, Michigan, in 1832.

At the age of 19, he began teaching in the rural schools of the county, in which work he was engaged for several years. From October, 1851, to May, 1853, he spent in various occupations in the gold fields of California.

October 1, 1856, he was united in marriage to Cordelia Addine Smith of Novi, Mich. They immediately took up their residence upon the farm in Farmington town ship, just across from that of his father's, upon which they have spent their entire married life and from which he was called by death Feb. 20, 1911. Through all his long life, he has been devoted to the interests of this home thus established. He has stood for all that uplifts and ennobles in life and against the evil in whatever form it is found.

Mr. Green has been an active worker in and member of the Universalist church, also the Grange and Farmer's clubs. His widow and four children survive—Calvin R. Green, Mrs. Maud Shattuck, Mrs. Myra Jackson and Mary S. Green. He also leaves one brother, Horace A. Green, and two sisters, Mrs. Emma Heliker of Clarenceville, and Mrs. Lucy Seeley of Garden City, S. D.

The funeral was held from the home February 22, 1911.

Obituary

Clifford Allen was born in Farmington July 14, 1870, and died at his home at 373 Dix avenue, Detroit, Feb. 13, 1911. He spent his boyhood days in Farmington and lived here until four years ago, when he and his family moved to Detroit, where he entered the employ of the E. M. F. Co., and worked as nightwatch until about four months ago, when he was compelled to retire from his position on account of sickness, and steadily grew worse until the end came on the above date.

The remains were brought to Farmington on Thursday of last week, and the funeral was held from the Universalist church, Rev. Lee S. McCollister officiating. Interment was made in Oakwood cemetery.

Card of Thanks

The family of the late Clifford B. Allen wish to express their heartfelt thanks to their many friends for the kindness rendered them in their recent bereavement, for the beautiful flowers, the sweet music, and comforting words of Dr. Lee S. McCollister and to all who gave them a helping hand in their hour of sorrow.

Card of Thanks

Mrs. A. E. Green and family wish to extend their sincere thanks to their friends and neighbors who gave sympathy and aid in their recent bereavement.

Ladies' Literary Club

The Ladies' Literary club met Wednesday afternoon Feb. 22, at the home of Mrs. Ella Irish. Meeting called to order by the president. Fifteen members were present, responding to roll call with an anecdote from the life of Washington. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. A letter was read from Mrs. Stockwell of Pontiac, corresponding secretary of Pontiac Hospital Board, inviting the club and any others interested to be present at a linen shower to be given in Pontiac for benefit of said hospital Feb. 23. Towels, trav cloths, etc., solicited, also silver contributions. No action was taken on the matter. As there was no further business the meeting was turned over to the chairman of the day, Mrs. Ella Irish, who had spared no pains in making the day sacred to the memory of our first president a pleasant one. The parlors were artistically decorated in our country's colors. The souvenirs of the day were dainty little booklets containing the program which was as follows:

"The Father of His Country"—Emma Wilber.

"The Chronology of Washington"—Martha Warner.

Recitation, "The Birthday of George Washington, the 'Seenth'"—Josephine McGee.

"Washington's Kiss"—Josephine McGee.

"George Washington, Farmer"—Martha Hutton.

Reading, "Money Musk"—Ernestine Pierce, with music by Mrs. Minnie Wilber.

"Washington's Birthday"—Alice Gullen.

Song, "My dreams of the U. S. A."—Vivian, Helen and Moreen Dobany.

Then came an historical memory test, but as the ladies were all too young to remember so far back, the results were not very flattering. The prize, a hatchet adorned with cherries, was awarded to Mrs. Pierce, with Mrs. Emma Wilber a close second. Two duets, "The Flag of Liberty" and "Bunker Hill" sung by Mesdames Cook and Pierce and "The Star Spangled Banner" by Miss Mary Kennedy completed the program.

A social hour followed, during which ice cream and cake were served by the hostess. The club adjourned to meet March 8th with Mrs. Anna Cook.

Sec. Pro Tem.

Round-up of Farmer's Institutes

At the annual Round-up of Farmers' Institutes to be held at the Michigan Agricultural college, February 28, March 1st, 2nd and 3d, the manufacturers of spraying machinery and spraying materials will have an exhibit of their products. Ample space has been secured in the new Agricultural building, which insures the best exhibit of spraying material ever held in Michigan. Those wishing an opportunity to study the question of spraying will find it greatly to their advantage to see this exhibit.

Those attending will have an opportunity to see the Michigan fruit which was on exhibition last fall at the Land Show in Chicago.

Pneumonia Follows a Cold

But never follows the use of Foley's Honey and Tar which checks the cough and expels the cold. M. Stockwell, Hannibal, Mo., says: "I contracted a bad cold and cough and was threatened with pneumonia. One bottle of Foley's Honey and Tar completely cured me." Sold by T. M. McGee.
