Walk from page 1C

Exhibiting sculptors associated with Chesney Studio are: Buchan; John D'Acoust, figurative, representational; Earle M. Davis, contemporary; Joyce Gottileb, glasswork, abstract figurative; Dorie Kruss; figurative representational; John O'Hara, figurative; Marlene N. Radtke, representational; Sharon Sommers, wildlife representational; and Dorrie Woodbury, abstract.

Exhibitors associated with the Michigan Sculptors Guild include Janet Courtney, fish form; Connie Flechsig, abstract and semi-real; Rosalio Kallinin, abstract and figurative; Susan Mose sand Sylvia Peric, abstract. Also exhibiting will be Kegham Tazian, Farmington Hills resident and sculptor of the Farmington 125th anniversary commemorative said Gershenson, whose husband, Stephen, died from Hodgkin's disease.

Tickets for the garden walk are available at McFarland Florist & Greenhouses, 28915 Grand River; Metro Bank, 3700 Grand River; Farmington Center Florist, 33199 Grand River; Hearts & Roses Plorist, 33238 W. 12 Mile Road and Farmington Garden Club mem-

Flowers abound: Lillies and coral bell also adorn Nan Reid's garden.

Gilda from page 1C

Stephen was treated by Radner's therspist, Joanna Bull, who with Wilder co-founded the group. Local organizers are trying to raise money to support the De-troit area cluy.

to raise money to support the Detroit area club.

"We're looking for a facility, if anyone wants to support it," Gerahenson said. The programs are currently operating. We're in a fund-raising mode now," as he added.

T-shirts sell for a minimum $15 donation; sweatabirts, for at least $25; and has for at least $25; and has for at least 10. Tribute cards and memorial corributions also are evallable.

Gilda's Club will also host a 5K plus Family Walk and Block Party on Sunday, Oct. 23.

Registration begins at 8 a.m. and the walk starts at 10 a.m. at Cobo Center and will continue through Hart Plaza to Chene Park It will end inside Cobo Center with a block party that is geared toward families. The entry fee is $12 b Spc. It, $15 b y Oct. 15, and $18 after Oct. 15. Children 12 and younger may participate free. For registration forms contact Ed Kotloff, Motor City Striders, 10144 Lincoln, Huntington Woods, MI 48070; or call (810) 544-9099.

Like all the fund-raisers, mon-oy raised from the walk will help pay for purchasing and furnishing a facility that will be in a metro Detroit central area like South-field, Royal Oak, Perndale or De-

Currently, organizers are work-ing in a temporary headquarters in offices donated by Edco Data Systems in Farmington Hills.

"Gilda's Club is going to be uplifting to make people feel good," Gerahenson said. "It's about coping with cancer, laughter, and strengthening the immune system."

People can live until they die or die until they die, Kadish said, emphasizing that Gilda's Club fo-cuses on living.

For more information about Gilda's Club call 851-6557; or write Gilda's Club, Metro Detroit, 31000 Northwestern Highway, Suite 200, Farmington Hills, Mich. 48334.

Resident wins writing contest award

A Farmington resident was among four students who were recently recognized for their writing talents at Madonns University's Third Annual Student Writing Competition.

Laurie Palazzolo, a Farmington resident, is a legal assistant major. She captured second place with her poems, "Goodlye, Uncle Tom," "Chipping Ice" and "Mileatone."

Denise Dillworth, a Westland resident, studies English, speech and sign language atudies, took first place for her poems, "Growing Up Woman," "Acness," and "Grendel."
Walled Lake resident Tracic Gardner, an English major, accepted first place in the Expository/Scholary Essay Category with her easay, "When 'Different' Be-comes 'Disordered': A Theory on the Impact of a 'Left Brain' Cur-riculum on Students with Atten-tion Deficit Disorder."

Ann Cleary, of Novi, received second place for her essay, "A Traditional Criticism of the poem 'Lot's Wife." She is pursuing a degree in English and journalism.

Solid Oak! Nature's best

Made even better by solid sale savings!

On Sale Now At 40% Off Retail

Solal oak! Nature's best, made even better by Bichardson Brothers. Hand crafted by the masters, these chairs are steam bent, dowelled, and double glued. With sears tested for strength, legs leveled, and a round table that rests on a pedestal base. All softmes protected from spills by Resistorar super topical (see state) which is a protected from spills by Resistorar super topical (see safe).

Stop in today and receive a FREE sample of Guardsman Furniture Polish!

Walker/Buzenberg

240 North Main Street · Plymouth

Mon., Thurs., Fri. 10.9; Tues., Wed., Sat. 10-6 • ($13) 459-1300 90 Days Same As Cash Available, See store for details • Sale ends 7-2-94

First Annual CHILI COOK OFF -Sunday, June 26th-

Put on those cowboy boots and head to Bir-mingham for "foot stomping" fun for all ages. Local chefs and national chili teams will cook up their own special recipes of "mouth watering" chili for you to sample!

- · First, second and third prizes.
- Live Country music, two-steppin' instruc-tions and more!

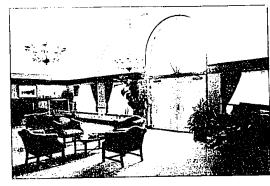

Bring the Kids! 12 - 5 pm Midtown Parking Lot

Call 433-3550 for more information.

Sponsored by

The Birmingham Eccentric

NOTHING IS ORDINARY AT PEACHWOOD INN

An excellent reputation is never attained by being ordinary. Peachwood has an excellent reputation and we earned it by being extraordinary Nowhere will you find better basic or skilled nursing care. Nowhere will you find a better restorative therapy department. Nowhere will you find a more dedicated and devoted professional staff. And all these services and programs are delivered in an environment that is not only functional but beautiful as well.

If ordinary has never been good enough for you and your family call Peachwood now.

Peachwood Inn

3500 W. South Boulevard, Rochester Hills

810-852-7800

Medicare Certified

Tours, by appointment, Monday-Friday