

ENGAGEMENTS

Lulls-Karbowski

Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Lulls of Gross Pointe Park announce the engagement of their daughter, Tara, to Robert Karbowski, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald J. Karbowski of Farmington Hills.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Olivet College, where she received a bachelor of arts degree in biochemistry.

Her fiance also is a graduate of Olivet College, where he received a bachelor of arts degree in business administration.

A September wedding is planned for St. Clare Church in Grosse Pointe Park.

Sardoski-Zaremba

Sardzo and Olga Sardoski of Livonia announce the engagement of their daughter, Natasha, to Jerome Zaremba, the son of Chester and Dolores Zaremba of Edina, Mich.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Churchill High School and Lawrence Technological University, where she received a bachelor's degree in finance. She is employed by Ford Motor Credit Company.

Her fiance is a graduate of St. Mary Cathedral High School and the University of Detroit, where he received his bachelor of arts degree. He also holds a juris doctor degree from the U-D School of Law. He is employed by Ford Motor Credit Company as an attorney for international financing operations.

A September wedding is planned for Our Lady of Sorrows Catholic Church in Farmington.

DAR history contest winners are named

Quakertown Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution has presented "Excellence in American History" medals to four area high school seniors. The students were chosen for the award by the number of classes in American history that they had taken, their grades, and their interest in American history.

Medal winners are Stephanie Myre and Scott Mirkes from North Farmington High School, Amir Baghdadchi from Farmington Hills School, and Becky Ann Opat from Novi High School.

Myre, co-winner from North Farmington, is the daughter of Phillipine and Nicole Myre of Farmington Hills. She was a member of the National Honor Society and had leading roles in many musical/theatrical productions. As a result, Myre has won numerous vocal, musical, and theatrical awards. She also won the Spanish and social studies awards at North. Myre plans to attend DePaul University in the fall.

Mirkes is the son of Steve and Elaine Mirkes of Farmington Hills. He graduated with a grade point average of 3.915 and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He is listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students. Mirkes received the top male Spanish student award. He plans to attend Wayne State University's Honors College on its presidential scholarship and to study psychology there.

Baghdadchi is the son of Jamil and Mahin Baghdadchi of Farmington Hills. He is a National Merit Scholar, was president of the Physics Club, vice-president of the Debate Club, and won in Quiz Bowl for four years. Baghdadchi is a member of the music group Big Willie and the Flaming Debates. He will be attending the University of Michigan in its honors college.

Opat is the daughter of Robert and Joanne Opat of Novi. She was a member of the National Honor Society, senior class secretary, varsity volleyball captain, and president of the Interact Club. She was co-vice-president of her class. Opat plans to attend the University of Michigan.

Kids Day, pet show featured at local festival

The Farmington Founders Festival is coming up — and so are Kids Day and the Festival Pet Show.

The Pet Show, part of Kids Day, begins at 1 p.m. Tuesday, July 12, on the stage of the Showmobile in Farmington's City Park, Shawsawnee and Power roads.

Official entry forms containing rules of the event are available at parks and recreation department playgrounds, the children's sections of both branches of the Farmington Community Library, the Chamber of Commerce office, the Farmington Area YMCA, Farmington-area pet and supply stores, and at the Plaza, Veterinary Hospital.

All Pet Show entrants will be given a certificate of participation. Trophies will be awarded to the first-, second- and third-place winners in each category. Entrants and their pets will be invited to ride on or walk alongside a float in the Festival Parade on Saturday, July 16.

For more information, call Plaza Veterinary at 476-3662.
