Taxes from page 1A

in Nebraska before her family moved to Michigan nine years ago. She supports education but sees Proposal A as deceitful. "I asked questions," she said.

sees Proposal A as deceiful.

"I asked questions," ahe said.
"They (politicians) really didn't tell the truth.

Ryther said her summer tax bill was about 12 percent less than last year's, instead of the 50 percent she thought she'd get.

Many residents have been under that same impression, Babb said. But the school portion of the tax was only reduced from 29.0015 last summer to 22.4425 this summer.

mer.
Hills councilman Aldo Vagnosti, a former Parmington Board of Education member who opposed
Proposal A, said he wan't surprised by the complaints.
"The proposal is doing what it

■ 'There is a lot of confusion about tax bills. A lot of people expected big-time savings and didn't get it. But, like I've tried to explain to people, you got what you voted for.' Hills assessor Dean Babb said it would," he said. "I think expectations were higher."

The proposal does include an additional cut of from 12.14 mills for winter taxes, Vagnozzi said.

Ryder said she had talked to other residents when she went to the city complex to ask about her bell and some, like one 65-year-old woman, just could not afford the Farmington district's high tax rate.

"I don't know who they hope to attract to Farmington Hills with

Arrests from page 1A

When officers made the arrest they found a sawed-off shotgun in the back seat. Shift commander Lt. Chuck Nebus, who arrived on the scene shortly after the arrest, credited Norman and Plottse for coordi-nating the arrest — along with a semi truck that inadvertently clogged up the already slow rushfrour traffic.

Hills Inspector Tom Godwin said officers were able to quickly catch the suspects because of the Spear-old's quick thinking.

"That's one sharp kid," be said.

GRAND RIVER - HALSTED PLAZA Farmington

SIDEWALK SALE

Thurs. July 14, Fri. July 15, Sat. July 16

reat sarbers on lastilon: Wong's Kitchen Exx rolls . "5 Beverage . 50 Farmington Book Center

Face painting CLOWN Frl. & Sat. 11:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. Card & Gift Center

Koney Island Inn But 3 Koneys get one free Diamond Boutique Kiddle Land Special to "0" off on tors

Bo Rics Hair Care
Guaranteed lowest professional bate co-

K Mart

Heritage Dry Cleaners

Perry Drug Store

Citizen from page 1A

She came to the United States in 1831, following her flance who arrived stateside two years earlier to work as an engineer.

He waited nervously at the wind people of the waited nervously at the Michigan Depot, she said, won-dering why her train from Quebox was late. After all, they had business to tend to.

When she arrived, they rushed down to the city hall and were married Aug. 31, 1831. Quotas were filling up and U.S. Customs required immigrant couples to be married within a five-day period. Chimes from weddings bells turned to a slow toll as the Turner' union coincided with the Great Depression. Her husband was down to wering one hour a discount to wering one hour a discount of the control of the Great Depression. Her nussaand was down to working one hour a day.

"When you came into this country, you wowed you wouldn't become dependent on the country," she said.

She took her two children, David and June, and returned to Scotland at the same time Adolf Hitler was making rumblings in Europe. After 11 months, with war imminent, Samuel Turner sent for his family.

"The children began to pick up "Stottish accent," she said.

"When we arrived, the boy said, "Poir-ther, I have a box of swots for you." He was rather shocked."

Another footnote: She and her interest.

for you.' . . . He was rather for shocked."

Another footnote: She and he children reached the United States on the malden woyage of The Athenia, which was later sumk by German U-boats on its return to Europe.

The Tunners raised four children in their home in then Farmington Township. They include David Turner, a U.S. Navy commander, June Switten of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Peggy Calkins of Bothell, Wesh; and the late Douglas Turner. All four went to Farmington schools.

Cliteranhip always becknood, she said, but family came first.

She embarked on becoming a citizen in 1943, but was thwarted. She went through the citizenanhip.

he went through the citizenship less and was ready to be sworn in in Pontisc.

"My husband took one look at 9

Flag wavers: Martha Turner (left) and friend Doris Beasley wave their flags during the 1993 Memorial Day Parade in Farmington

me and he shook his head and said, You're in no shape to go in front of the judge," Turmer said. Later she gave birth to Pegry her youngest daughter. A second attempt at clitizenship was interrupted by the birth of her fourthild.

She wasn't going to make three strikes.

Turmer, along with several oth-

Ŋ

he BEST of Cable THE SUMMER HEWS SUMMER ALL Comes Your Way TOERE THE 1, 2, 3, OR FREE OFFER FOR NEW SUBSCRIBERS

For the first month of Basic Cable

Service.

if your cable is not Installed within 24 hours after we receive your call, our first month*

$1 Adds The Premium Channel Of Your Choice To Your Existing Cable Service. HBO, Cinemax, Showtime, The Movie Channel or The Disney Channel.

$2 Covers The Cost Of The 1st Premium Channel You Choose For The First Month*.

$3 Covers The Cost Of The 2nd Premium

THE 1. 2. 3. OR FREE OFFER FOR CURRENT SUBSCHIBERS

Offer good for orders placed July 11, 1994 through July 29, 1994.

REDFORD 538-1313

LIVONIA 422-3200

OAKLAND 553-7300

At our Grand Opening, we're expecting Leonard Bernstein, Aaron Copland, John Philip Sousa, and you.

Join us at our all-new Farmington Hills branch office Wednesday through Saturday, July 20-23 to celebrate our Grand Opening. But what would a celebration be without the likes of Bernstein, Copland, and Sousa! Be sure to earth our community band concert on Thursday evening, July 21, and you'll hear them all

Wednesday, July 20

Join us anytime in the afternoon for coffee and cake, visit our Show Your Card display, and enter a daily member prize drawing. We also will announce our Grand Prize winner, who receives United Airlines tickets for a flight anywhere in the continental U.S.

Thursday, July 21

Show Your Card® displays, daily member prize drawings and refreshments continue. Then, attend our community band concert at 7:00 P.M., and enjoy our antique car display and ice

Friday, July 22

Visit our Show Your Carde retailers, enter the daily member prize drawing and enjoy!

Saturday, July 23 Our children's day, from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. promises fun for kids and grownings aller with chalk paintings, clowns, balloops and refreshments. Also get a bike inspection and sells test and a free photo ID for kids (co-sponsored by NBD Bank, N.A.).

Grand Opening Celebration Dates:

Wednesday - Saturday, July 20 - 23 For more information, call (810) 553-3700

Farmington Hills Branch Office 38751 W. 12 Mile Rd.

