SIDEWALK FOR SALE!

MAN FINDS SALE SO IRRESISTIBLE HE EVEN BUYS THE SIDEWALK!

"I just couldn't help myself," cried Mac Benchman. "I remembered last year's sidewalk sale at Tel-Twelve Mall. Even after picking up trunkload after trunkload of fantastic bargains for myself and my family, I just knew there was something I had missed."

"Day after day, I thought about it. I tried to visualize my shopping actions during the four days of the sale. I retraced my steps, remembering each purchase. The jogging shoes... the volleyball and net... the swim suit with matching cover-up for my wife... the remote control cars for the kids... the t-shirts, sweatshirts, sunglasses, sandals, sport coats... I went over the list from A to Z, but still it escaped me."

Benchman became obsessed with the phantom item. "I shopped more often at Tel-Twelve Mall throughout the year, hoping to find a clue to what I had missed. Benchman sighed, "and I did enjoy shopping at Tel-Twelve Mall because I always seemed to find something someone in my family wanted or needed, so the time was well spent. But I knew something was missing."

While stopping on a city sidewalk and looking down at large wads of gum melting on the hot pavement, Benchman had a revelation. "It hit me like a block of concrete falling from the sky," he said. "I had bought up everything at the sidewalk sale except for the sidewalk itself!"

Benchman declined to comment on how he actually obtained the piece of sidewalk. "My eccentric purchase might not be right for everyone," Benchman advised, "but the Sidewalk Sale at Tel-Twelve Mall sure is!"
