

Pageant contestants showed talent, poise and beauty

It was truly a dream come true for Megan Smith who won the Miss Farmington/Farmington Hills 1994 Pageant. This year's theme was: "Dare To Dream."

The first runner-up was Theresa Kuclio; second runner-up was Sara Urevig; third runner-up was Tricia Barnes; and fourth runner-up was Julie Stockel. The talent award went to Kuclo and Miss Congeniality went to Kara Spicer. Work has already begun for next year's pageant, according to executive director Ginny Morris. The theme will be "Music of the Opera." Three businesses have approached Morris about sponsoring a contestant next year. L. & G. Insurance Group sponsored Smith. It was the first time a company sponsored a contestant.

Tapping talent: Julie Ann Stockel performed a tap solo.

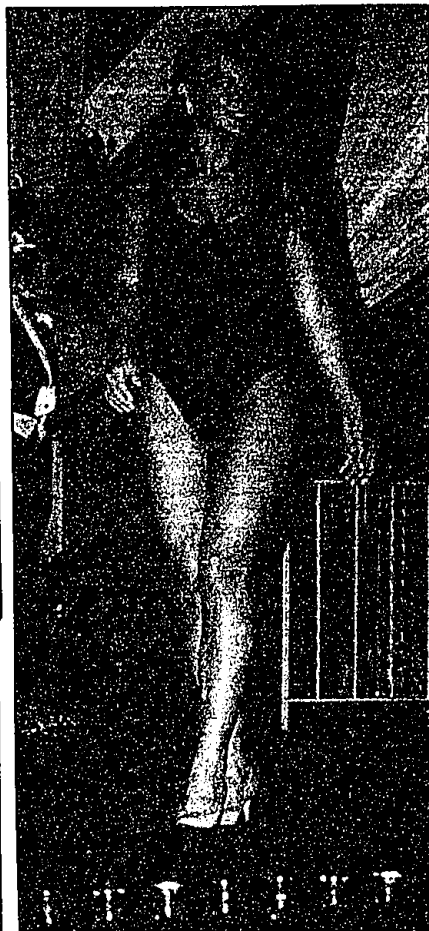

Just right: Makeup artist Jerri Wilhelm puts the finishing touches on pageant contestant Kathleen Fitzpatrick.

Tears of joy: Julie Dugan, last year's Miss Farmington/Farmington Hills, passes the crown to the new queen, Megan Smith.

Calming her nerves: Theresa Kuclio waits back stage before going on again.

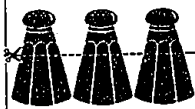

Strong stride: Sara Elizabeth Urevig models a bathing suit.

Fond farewell: Julie Dugan, last year's winner, said goodbye during this year's pageant.

Go against the grain.

Cut down on salt.
