Hills resident named to LTU post

Judy Milloic, a Farmington Hills resident, has been named director of the Office of Business Services at Southern Lehigh University. This completes a cycle started in 1968 when Milloic started in the office as a part-time student employee.

She graduated from Lawrence Tech with a bachelor's degree in mathematics in 1976, and she also earned a master's of business administration in 1986 from Oakland University.

Judy Milloic

"Over the years there always seemed to be another opportunity that kept me here," she said.

Milloic has been active in Lawrence Tech's Alumni Association, including two terms as president. She is also involved in fund raising for Alternatives for Girls, a non-profit organization dedicated to helping abused young women.

In Detroit find a positive place in society. She recently arranged a major fund-raising dinner to benefit Alternatives for Girls.
