Church has inspirational programs

A one-man drama of a Christian classic and a musical message of healing are among the highlights of several special presentations at Detroit First Church of the Nazarene on Hagerty just north of Eight Mile.

Actor Chuck Neighbors will present a one-man dramatic adaptation of Charles Sheldon's classic book, "In His Steps."

"Like the novel, set in the early 1900s, the drama will challenge the viewer to explore the meaning of Christian discipleship and take an in-depth look at a Christian's commitment to Christ.

Neighbors' performance of "In His Steps" will begin at 6 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 6.

The doors will open at 5:30 p.m. Admission, parking and child care are free.

Loading up to Easter, Detroit First Church Senior Pastor Holland Lewis presented a series of messages on "In His Steps."

Also, at 11 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 4 the Rev. Jerry Street, associate pastor at First Church, will speak on "Borderline Living."

Musical guests that morning will be the Ken Apple Family from Northville who will present a mini-concert of gospel music.

Detroit First Church has a multi-ministry approach that serves children, teens, singles, families and senior adults throughout southeast Michigan.

Many of its members live in Farmington, Novi, Northville, Livonia, Plymouth, Westland, Redford, Southfield, Birmingham, West Bloomfield, Pinckney, Milford, Highland and the Lakes area.

For more information call the church at 348-7600.
