Observerland bowler wins another major tourney

Rick Eiermann of Garden City became the first two-time winner in the Stroh's Beer Michigan Majors for 1994 at Galaxy Lanes in Grand Blanc. This was the fourth title overall for Eiermann. It also was a big win for him in the battle for "Bowler of the Year." The $2,000 first prize pushed him into the lead in the yearly money race with $4,090 in earnings. This is $50 more than Paul Kwiecien of Lansing, Kwiecien placed fourth at Galaxy. "It may have looked like an easy win," said Eiermann, "but they are never easy with this competition." Eiermann closed with seven strikes in a row for a 249-185 win over Jeff Curtis of Lansing. Several other bowlers from Observerland fared well. Larry Franz of Redford Township finished in ninth place. Terry Tesars from Livonia, 13th, Karl Brubaker of

Garden City, 15th, Dave Witt of Southfield, 17th, Lee Snow of Farmington Hills, 19th, Dave O'Brien of Rochester Hills, 23rd, Ray Krutner of Westland, 24th, Paul Hutchinson from Garden City, 30th, Dave Schumacher of Rochester Hills, 33th, Ryan Wilson of Garden City, 43rd and Livonia's Fred Ramirez cashed the 44th spot. For more information of the Stroh's Beer Michigan Majors, call Ken Charvett at (810) 778-2414. Here is a "capsule" review of the "Bowler Expo '94" which took place a week ago at the Gibraltar North Trade Center in Mt. Clemens. There were a good number of exhibitors representing just about every bowling organization. The participating pro shops kept their drilling rigs running constantly as they had another "field day" in new ball sales. Several of the local pros showed up in support of the local pro and sports apparel exhibitors. As was the case a year ago, most of the visitors were spectators. Taylor Lanes was signing

February to accommodate the west-sliders more. In the latest Michigan Junior Masters competition at Battle Creek, Kris Langer of Troy came in 18th, Jeff Mendoza of Livonia, 19th and Jason Swartz of Canton, 22nd. The MJMA is the ultimate in youth bowling competition. For information on their monthly scholarship tournaments, call Dan Ottman at (810) 689-8098.
