Visiting Europe: Stephen Wayne, 11, of Farmington, a longtime Observer carrier, took his Farmington Observer to France and Germany this summer. Stephen toured the two countries from Aug. 2-27 and visited friends and a former exchange student with his mom, Mary Sue Wayne. Mother and son were able to take the trip because of frequent flier points collected by other family members who had the opportunity to tour Europe earlier this year. In April, Mary Sue's husband, Roger, and two other children visited Europe with the Farmington High School Marching Band. A third child toured Europe with the Blue Lakes Fine Arts Camp in June. The Waynes visited with a former exchange student in France and the Klesse family in Germany. The Klesse family previously lived in Farmington and were close friends of the Wayne family. Stephen is pictured above in front of Notre Dame in Paris and in front of a castle in Munster, Germany (a suburb of Wolbeck where the Klesse family lives). The Waynes took their Observer to many local attractions including Anne Frank's house in Amsterdam, the Cologne Cathedral, the harbor at Hamburg and the Eiffel Tower in Paris.
