God's Love Provides Us With The Brilliance Of Autumn

Reboid the shades of red and gold
That show a year that's growing old;
For soon those leaves will fade to brown,
Then slowly will come drifting down,
Inhale the smoke from fires bright,
Dispersed by chimneys in the night;
Then feel the cooler winds that blow
And soon will bring the winter snow.
It's harvest time throughout the land,
As part of what the Lord has planned
Within the cycle of the year.
For reasons that will soon appear
When lessons of your faith reveal
The love of God that's very real,
As people everywhere have found
When brilliant autumn comes around.
— Gloria Noma

A woodland in full color is no less color as it forms fire.
— Neil Bartram

"The Lord reserves
unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest."
— Jeremiah 5:24
