Columbus' Voyage Marked An Invisible Path For Others

When he crossed the Atlantic, he'd taken the lead,
Though he had no idea that he would succeed
In traversing the ocean and finding new ground
In the East, just by going the long way around.
Now he failed in his station, but did not the stage
For explorers to follow and start a new age
Of adventure, in which they discovered new land,
In accordance with what the Almighty had planned,
And that courage and daring were always the cause
For our modern explorers new journey to space.
In the lesson to learn it, wherever you ride,
Like the faith of Columbus, let God be your guide.

— Gloria Steinem
