The high school football season concludes this weekend for most observeriand teams, but four will continue on in the state playoffs.

Three of these schools are known — Farmington Hills Harrison. Livous Blevenson and Redford St. Agatha — but the fourth remains to be determined.

The winner of the Westland John Glenn-Wayne Memorial game will apparently be the fourth-place seed in Class AA Region 2 and play at Belleville in the fourth-place seed in Class AA Region 2 and play at Belleville in the first unund.

Projections for the other playoff games: Harrison hosts either Detroit Chadsey or Dearborn in A-3, Stevenson travels to Howell in AA-2 and St. Agaths entertains North Branch Wesleyan in D-4.

Two other big games pit perennial powers against each other.

Western Lakea Activities Association changlos Harrison visits Flint Metro League winner Oxford on Friday, and Redford Catholic Central plays host to Dearborn Fordson on Saturday.

In addition to Glenn-Wayne season-enders between intra-district rivals include Canton-Salem, Redford Union-Thurston and Stevenson-Churchill.

The prediction context is still up for grabs, too. Dan O'Mears holds a mere two-game edge over Stevenson-Churchill.

The prediction contest is still up for grabs, too. Dan O'Meara holds a mere two-game edge over defending champ Brad Emons, 93-25 to 91-27. Both were 11-2 last week.

The Warriors were leading top-ranked Warren DeLaSalle 14-7 late in the third quarter. Then disaster struck. All it took was a couple of turn-overs and within a four-minute span Rice found itself down 17-

The Warriors never recovered and host DeLaSalle went on to win by that score before an estimated crowd of 6,000 at Roseville Memorial Stadium.

The Pilota (8-0) won their first division crown since 1984 and will face undefeated Orchard Lake St. Mary's in the Catholic League championahip game 7 p.m. Sunday at the Silverdome.

Rice (6-2) plays Detroit East Catholic (6-3) in the Prep Bowl at 1 p.m. Sunday at the Silverdome.

"It's disappointing any time you lose." Rice coach Al Fracassa said. "But it was a good game and our kids didn't quit. We played a good football team, and the game could have gone either way."

Rice struck first when quarter-back Derek Canine snuck in a from a yard sawy just before half-time. The Warriors missed the crt apoint but led 6-0 at halfilme.

DeLaSalle took the second half kickoff and marched 68 yards in seven plays to take the lead, 7-6.

Rice, sparred by Briam Marshall's 72-yard return on the ensuing kickoff, regained the lead a short time later. Canine again snuck over, this time from 2 yards. Marshall ran in the two-postessions.

First, a bad anap on a fourth-down punt attempt gave De-LaSalle great field position at the fourth quarter, Canine threw a face of the control of the second play of the fourth quarter, Canine threw a fase to the field that was intercepted by DLS linebacker 70s Bernsford.
