Spirited step: North Farmington High honor students Jason Pawlowski and Benjamin Sommers showed their school spirit in the third annual Blue Cross Blue Shield of Michigan Parade Honor Corps, a specialty unit in the 68th Michigan Thanksgiving Day Parade. Detroit Mayor Dennis Archer and Blues President/CEO Richard Whitmer led some 300 scholars from 98 high schools down Woodward Avenue in the parade.

Ad exec named senior partner

Farmington Hills resident Sanjay Khetrapal has joined Bozell Worldwide advertising's Detroit office as senior partner, management information systems.

The consolidation of Bozell's two Detroit-area offices created the need for a strengthened MIS group. In this newly created position, Khetrapal will oversee all of the Detroit office's computer operations. In addition, Khetrapal manages a department of seven people.

Khetrapal joined Bozell after spending nine years with Young & Rubicam in Detroit. He's held various positions with Young & Rubicam, including vice president, director of management information services.

Bozell Worldwide clients include Chrysler Corp. corporate and international accounts, Chrysler/Plymouth and Jeep and Eagle divisions, Rockwell International, The Hush Puppies Co., Cellular One, Consumers Power, and the Southeastern Michigan Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Seniors to get free phone calls

The Merrill Lynch office in the Bloomfield Wood Centre on Woodward Avenue will make its telephones available to more than 140 low-income elderly individuals to make free long-distance calls to friends and relatives on Saturday, Dec. 17.

The Oakland Livingston Human Services Agency is working with Merrill Lynch to organize the event, select individuals to participate, and provide transportation.

Groups of participants will arrive each hour between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. and place calls for about 30 minutes, then take part in a Christmas party.

Seniors interested in participating must register in advance by calling (810) 858-5164.
