Road adventure goes sour for Crusaders cage squad

This isn't what Madonna University's men's basketball team went weat for.

The Fighting Crusaders road trip to Missouri started poorly, with tight losses at Hannibal-La-Grange College (Hannibal-La-Grange College (Hannibal-La-Grange College (Hannibal), Mo.) Satunlay and at Lindenwood College (St. Charles, Mo.) Monday.

Monday's 76-68 loss at Lindenwood rountled from a second-half Lindenwood comeback. Madonna led 38-34 at the half, but improved shooting in the second half by the host team (15-67-26, 58 percent) caused the turnaround. The Crusaders were 17-67-34 in the opening half (50 percent) but dipped to 11-67-34 (23 percent) in the second.

Jusionni Dimes turned in a superb performance, scoring 25 points on 12-67-17 shooting. He also had six rebounds and four stetals. Brandon Stone (from Plymouth Salem) added 15 points and Jeff Kennedy finished with 12 points and a team-high seven boards. Brandon Lemley added nine points and three steals.

Lindenwood was paced by Scott Kotovsky's 21 points. Grap Petty had 14 and Eric Samuelson. In the loss to Hannibal-La-
