Let Us Pray To God That Human Rights May Be Restored.

No matter how many of the world's problems are solved, new ones always seem to develop, and even old ones threaten to recur. Wherever these trouble spots are, they all have one major element in common: the denial of human rights. These can range from the prohibition of free speech to mass starvation to all-out war against one's own countrymen.

People of good conscience everywhere can only wonder what if anything they or their governments can do in order to restore freedom and justice. For one thing, elected officials in a democratic society are generally responsive to their constituents, so make your feelings known to them.

Also, attend your House of Worship and pray that the right actions will be taken to put an end to these horrible conditions. We should never underestimate the power of prayer.

Liberty is the only thing which cannot be taken away from you unless you are willing to give it to others.
— William Allen White
