Hills resident stirs up drink in party guide

Robin Ray of Farmington Hills helpod provs alcohol doesn't have to be an ingredient for a successful holiday party.

Ray's favorits beverage recipe for "Garbo's Glow" is included in AAA Michigan's 1994 "Great Pretenders Party Guidde" of non-alcoholic drink recipes. The guids is available at AAA Michigan branch offices statewide.

Ray's "Garbo's Glow" comes in a gleas rimmed with an orange slice and dipped into sugar mixed with a dash of cinnamon.

The blender mix calls for one cup of plain yogurt, one banans, one cup of respberries with juice, half a teaspoon of ground ginger, one-eighth cup of lemon juice and a splash of soda.

The drink can be served with an orange alice as gamlah. The party guide is for anyone planning a boliday get-together, to encourage hosts to serve alco-bol-free alternatives and help reduce drinking-related injuries and deaths on state roads, said Jerry Bash, AAA Michigan Community Safety Services

Jerry Bash, AAA Michigan Community Bafety Services manager. During last year's Christmas and New Year's holiday period. 77 people were killed in 32 traffic crashes in the state, eight of those victims died in alcohol-related accidents.

The Auto Club's 14th annual "Great Pretonders Party Guide" has a Hollywood thome and features 15 drink recipes by Michigan residents who were selected as finalists in three regional "Zero-Proof Mix-Off" contests in October.

Finalists drinks were selected on taste, appearance and adherence to the contest's allverscreen thems.

The booklet, also distributed screen trome.

The booklet, also distributed through traffic safety organizations, contains favorite alcoholine different drihas of some Michigan-based celebrities, including vocalist Anits Baker and former Red Wings hockey great Gordie Howe.
