Scholarship dinner set Wednesday

A dinner will be held Wednesday evening in the Plum Hollow Country Club in Southfield to present the first art scholarship award in memory of a former Livonia resident, the late Irene A. Bango.

Tony Bango of Livonia established the Memorial Scholarship in Art and Music in October 1994 in memory of his wife, Irene.

Mrs. Bango had given many years of service to the Clarenceville School District, especially its band program. A special plaque with her picture and engraved information about the scholarship has been prepared to hang in the lobby at Clarenceville High. The scholarship is available to art and music students.

Anyone wishing to make donations to the fund may mail a check to Clarenceville High School, care of Irene Bango Scholarship Fund, 20155 Middlebelt, Livonia MI 48152.
