Do You Like Good Coffee

If you haven't tried one of our Royal Valley Coffees—NERO, MARI GOLD or TZAR—then you and your family are not drinking as good coffee as you might, and for less money. Royal Valley Coffees are richer-flavored, because they have more of the natural coffee-oil in them. And they're more economical, because they have stronger "body," so that you don't need to use so much of them, per cup, to have your coffee just the strength that you like best. We have a big trade on these coffees, because they REALLY ARE BETTER. Use Royal Valley NERO at 25c, or MARI GOLD at 30c, or TZAR at 35c per pound and HAVE BETTER COFFEE—and save money besides. Remember the days and dates, SATURDAY and MONDAY, March 25 and 27. Hoping you will take advantage of the SPECIAL BARGAINS, as I am here to please you.

The Judgeship

Thodore D. Halpin, candidate for Circuit Judge, on the Democratic ticket was born in Lapeer township, Lapeer county and is forty five years old. He was educated at the Lapeer High School (1884) and the University of Michigan (1888). He was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court on examination in 1888. Continued his legal studies in the office of Geer & Williams until 1890. He has been actively engaged in the practice of law for twenty-one years, five years as a member of the firm of Stiekney & Halpin and sixteen years as a member of the firm of Geer, Williams & Halpin. He has devoted his energie to his legal practice rather than to politics, and the spirit of the times seems to be to select for judges men trained in the law, without regard to their activity in politics.

DON M. DICKINSON ENDORSES WILKINS

(Detroit Journal, Republican, March 18, 1911.)
The first comment on political candidates which Don M. Dickinson has made in many years was offered by him this morning in the endorsement of Charles T. Wilkins and George S. Hoemer for the Wayne circuit bench. "While we have a number of good men among the candidates," said Mr.

Dickinson, "I am particularly interested in two of them, Judge Hoemer and Charles T. Wilkins. Judge Hoemer read law in my office, and his record on the bench shows for itself.
"As far as Mr. Wilkins is concerned, I have known him and his family intimately for many years. Mr. Wilkins' record as assistant United States attorney is one that any lawyer might justly be proud of, while as an attorney in active practice during the past 25 years in the city he has demonstrated his great knowledge of the law and its application.
"Mr. Wilkins is brilliant, honest, experienced and fitted in every way to follow in the footsteps of his distinguished father, the late Col. W. D. Wilkins; and his grandfather, Judge Ross Wilkins, who was the first United States district judge of Michigan and who continued in the important position for so many years. I think Charles has the second edition of the old judge and should be elected."

Plain Talk to Parents

"Do not fail to make allowance for slight exaggerations, when hearing of pranks in school.
"Do not accuse the teacher of undue favoritism if she is kinder to one child than to another; it is because that one does not take advantage of the liberty allowed him. This is simple justice.
"Do not tell the teacher that Willie will not lie. She may know better.
"Do not condemn the teacher without a fair hearing. This is accorded to even the worst criminal. There are usually two sides to the story.
"Do not send a scathing note to the teacher by Nellie, the contents of which she knows, the contents of which she knows, the contents of which she knows. Her aggressive look of triumph is not soothing and the teacher is only human.
"Do not make unfavorable comment upon the methods of the teacher in the presence of your child. Send him to carry in wood while you are doing so, if it must be done.

Card of Thanks

In Memoriam
In loving remembrance of Elmer Treadway, who departed this life March 13, 1911.
A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.
God in His wisdom has recalled,
The boon His love had given;
Although the body slumbers now
The soul is safe in heaven.
