Harrison teacher lauded for PR work

Harrison High teacher Margaret Culver has been awarded the E. Dale Kennedy Award for outstanding public relations programs by the 114,000-member Michigan Education Association.

Culver is chairwoman of public relations for the Farmington Education Association. The award was presented this week at the state Public Relations Conference at the Detroit Westin Hotel.

Those attending applauded the accomplishments of the FEA as MEA President Julius Maddox and Vice President Lynn Larson presented awards to 27 recipients. Diane Feldman, president of the Feldman Group, was the keynote speaker.

It is through the public relations activities of MEA affiliates, like the FEA, that the public is informed of the issues and efforts of education employees, Maddox said. Maddox also commended the award winners, saying they have earned the respect and gratitude of colleagues.

2 residents on club board

Two Farmington Hills residents, J.B. Warford and Robert L. Schreier, have been named to one-year terms on the board of directors of the private Walnut Creek Country Club in South Lyon.

Firm appoints senior associate

Lawrence H. Zeck has been named senior associate of Ludwig and Karas Inc., the Farmington Hills commercial real estate and development firm.

The West Bloomfield resident has been with the company for nine years and will continue to specialize in retail sales and leasing.

Company names VP, controller

Michael J. Murphy has been named vice president and controller at Federal APD Inc. in Farmington Hills. Murphy had been director of internal audits at Federal APD's parent company, Federal Signal Corp., in Chicago.

Murphy's experience spans many different industries and responsibilities. He started with Federal Signal in January 1990 after five years as controller of Midwest Growers Supply. Prior to that, he held a number of positions in financial management with Hoover Universal, Illinois Tool Works and Amoco Oil Co.

Murphy holds a bachelor of science degree and a master of business administration degree from Northern Illinois University.

Murphy is responsible for maintaining and managing all financial aspects/functions of the business.
