Hindu priest enlivens INFO TV- 12

There's never a dull moment at the SWOCC INFO TV-12 effice. Last week was no exception. We had a very interesting viait tor spend time with us. His name is Jamaie CALDEROW. Naidu, He was the guest of INFO TV-2 Production Specialist Todd Whitman and INFO TV-12 Products of Spinger. By profession, Dr. Singer teaches Health Behavioral Sciences at Oakland University. Naidu is an 84 year old Hindu Kali Mai High Priest who is renowned in his South American home country of Guyana, as well as Trinidad and throughout the Caribbean. In Michigan, he has lectured before the Detroit Psychiatric Institute, Oakland University and church groups.

Kali Mai is the female goddess representing the power of creation and destruction. She is worshipped by hundreds of millions of men and women in India and in the parts of the world where Hindulam has apread.

Naidu is a very spiritual man who, through the power of prayer, is able to invoke the spirit of Kali Mai and her sisters. He has been instrumental in healing schizophrenicz, depressed individuals and even in aiding women who have had difficulty conceiving.

It was Dr. Singer's fortune to meet this man more than 20 years ago when he traveled to Guyans with physiciams from Albany

Medical Collego. At that time, the college was assisting the Guyanese in developing their health resources. These professionals obtained conclusive medical evidence to attest to the fact that Nalu's methods were more effective than the government mainal hospital's and local ob/gyns.

In 1976, Dr. Singer produced a 16 millimeter film on aspects of Guyanese healing entitled. "Divine Madness — Trance Danes and Healing in Guyana." It was an honor that this film was accepted in the Margaret Mead International Film Festival sponsored by the Museum of Natural History in New York City.

Video footage of Naidu shot least week by Singer and Whitman with the sacistance of Farmington Hills Video Production Supervisor David Tetemper will be used for programming on INFO TV-12. They will also enter it into this year's Margaret Mead International Film and Video Festival.

The New England Journal of Medicine recently concluded that one out of three Americana patronize alternative healers. Anybody up for a trip to Guyana?
