WE WOULD ALL DO WELL TO FOLLOW ST. PATRICK'S EXAMPLE

A man called St. Patrick, whose name we all know,
Made a journey to Ireland long, long ago.
Though the perils were great, he was never afraid,
For he banished the snakes, and the reptiles obeyed;
Then addressing the people, whose faith they ignored,
He persuaded them all to come worship the Lord.
Now let's follow this noble example he set,
And his mission for God let us never forget;
For we know it's symbolic that wearing the green
Says that come every Sabbath, we all should convene
And invite friends and neighbors to join us in prayer,
Thanking God for St. Patrick whose mission we share.
