Although there is only one ticket in the field in this township the voters should turn out nevertheless and show their interest in the affair. It is a bad habit to fall into, to remain away from polls because one's vote is not needed. Let's give the republican ticket a big boost.

er of the Enterprise, and later circulation manager of the Detroit Free Press, resigns a similar position with the Philadelphia Press to accept one on the official staff of the New York World today. The success indicated by this call to the largest paper in the country, is the best testimonial that can be offered to the possibilities of a country newspaper training.

It will no doubt be of interest to the people of this locality to know that much of the success of the good roads movement is due to Charles T. Wilkins, candidate for circuit judge. As attorney for the commission in 1907, Mr. Wilkins was of the greatest assistance to Mr. C. S. Benton, Edward Hines and others. He also advocated the good roads bill before the Detroit Board of Commerce. All this work was done without pay. Mr.
Wilkins received a letter of thanks and appreciation, which he appreciates highly, from the committee in charge of the movement.

for the first time we announce the engagement for that evening of M.

American piano artist. This one attraction alone will be worth the price of admittance, 15c and 20c.
Don't forget then that you are all due at the freak concert tomorrow evening, April 1st, at Farmington.

The unanimity with which the resolution against the proposed reciprocity treaty was passed in our Republican township caucus Saturday shows the temper of the voters in this vicinity regarding this vital proposition. It means much to the farmers of Michigan, and more, perhaps, to those in this section than any other part of the state. Canada is very near to us and is anxious to get free entry to our best market. While our neighbors across the border cannot be blamed for their anxiety to get a better market for their produce, we, in justice to ourselves, should exert every influence to prevent the consummation of this deal.

The feeling that exists among the voters of Oakland and Wayne counties should be forcibly brought to the attention of our representatives in congress that they may know what they can expect if they ignore the interests of the farming communities in this matter.

Come Out and Vote Next
Monday

The fact that only one township ticket is in the field should not be an excuse for anyone to remain away from the polls. Several important state offices are to be filled.
Also constitutional amendments to be voted on. One that all should vote yes on is the one that will put more primary money in our school districts.

Nearly all our Farmington voters know Judge Geo. W. Smith. He has made for many years a capable, efficient and honest circuit judge, always saving our taxpayers money when possible. He has no opponent from Oakland county, but the argument of those who support his opponent, who resides in Lapeer, is mainly that their county not Oakland should have the judge. The election of the circuit judge should not be decided on such a basis, but rather on qualifications and experience on that ground. The voters of Farmington can stand by and vote for Judge Smith. Be sure and vote
Monday.

Wilkins for Circuit Judge.

Indorsed by 90 Per Cent of All Lawyers in Detroit --What Hon. Don M. Dickinson and the Detroit Journal Say.

CHARLES T. WILKINS.

Born in Detroit, Educated in Detroit, University of Michigan and Harvard Law School. Assistant U. S. Attorney seven years. In active practice twenty-five years. Endorsed by ninety per cent of his brother lawyers of all political parties.

Hon. Don M. Dickinson, former Postmaster-General, and an acknowledged leader of the Bar in the United States, publicly declares for Mr.
Wilkins' election. He says in the press.

"He is possessed of a rare judicial mind. He has made good to a remarkable degree, and is especially fitted for the bench."

The Detroit Journal (Republican), under date of March 10th, 1911, says editorially:

"Mr. WILKINS began his public legal career in the office of the United States district attorney and has won recognition as one of the most brilliant of Detroit's attorneys in general law practice." Charles T. Wilkins' record as Asst. U. S. District Attorney in 1887, '88, '89 and '90, was so notable as to demand his re-appointment in 1894 for another term.

Over 90 per cent of the lawyers of the Detroit Bar favor Mr. WILKINS for Circuit Judge. Why? Ask your attorney.
