Fallen tree causes local power outages

A fallen tree_on Beechwood caused 900 Detroit Edison customers to lose power in Farming-ton Tuesday morning.

High winds blow the tree on an Edison wire, knocking out power at 6:10 a.m., Detroit Edison spotesman Scott Silmons said.

Fower was restored at 9:13 a.m.

"A quarter of those were momentary (power losses)," Silmons said. "They were book within a few seconds."

Power outages were limited to those between Drake and Farmington roads and Eight Mile and 10 Mile.

Traffic alguals were out at Farmington and Colfar, Farmington and Into Mile and Farmington and Alta Loma. Farmington and Alta Loma. Farmington police directed traffic at the Nine Mile intersection and placed stoy aigns at Alta Loma. Also, there were aeveral unrelated water main breaks at Mounty in front of Franks.
